Dague Seeks To Clear Conscience In West Virginia Crime

ASK WEST VIRGINIA TO SEND INVESTIGATOR TO HEAR DAGUE'S STORY

Attorney Dickey Believes Innocent Man Is Held In West Virginia
DAGUE SEEKING TO CLEAR CONSCIENCE

Says Dague And Irene Confess To Gas Station Robbery

Convinced that Frank Howells is serving a long term in the state prison of West Virginia for a crime committed by Irene Schroeder and W. Glenn Dague, Attorney Thomas W. Dickey, attorney for the pair is today asking Governor William G. Conley of West Virginia to send an investigator to New Castle to take a full confession made by Dague.

The crime was that of robbery of the gasoline station of Jack Cotts, near Mountsville, W. Va., on September 5, 1929. A man and a woman went into the station, held up the proprietor and ransacked the till of the station. Shortly after Howells was arrested and while he pleaded not guilty and endeavored to establish an alibi, the jury convicted him and he received from ten to fifteen years in the penitentiary.

Willing to Confess
At the time of the trial here it was said that Dague knew of the robbery, but nothing came of the story. Since that time he has made a full confession to his attorney and believing it unjust that an innocent man should suffer for another's crime, Mr. Dickey has started proceedings which may result in Howells being pardoned.

"I have no financial interest in the affair," said Mr. Dickey. "I do not know Jack Cotts, never saw him, and never expect to see him. Neither do I know Frank Howells who is Youthful bandits in this district should take warning before it is too late. Police authorities in all sections, aroused at the wave of banditry have been given orders to "shoot to kill" hold-up men, and they are carrying out the orders. The time has passed when there is any public sentiment for leniency in dealing with hold-up participants, and police realizing this fact will go the limit to get these yeggs. This banditry wave will be checked. Three more bandits were shot to death last night by police in various cities.

Chief of Police Horner's ultimatum that there will be no toleration of any influx of undesirables from across the Ohio border, due to the clean-up under way in that city.

Missing Youth Writes Parents

Slippery Rock High School Football Star Sends Letter From Florida

LEFT OF HIS OWN ACCORD, HE SAYS

(Special To The News)
SLIPPERY ROCK, Dec. 18.—Robert Hines, aged 17, who has been missing from his home here since November 7, has been located in Florida, his mother, Mrs. John Hines stated today.

The parent received a letter from the missing high school grid star, stating that he is now located in Tampa, Fla., where he is working in the Y. M. C. A.

He told them that he was discouraged over his showing in the football game against Bessemer high school and had just gotten disgusted with the world in general and decided to leave.

He fell in with a party who were travelling south and "hitch-hiked" his way to Daytona Beach, Fla., where he met a man who befriended him.

He asked them to send his clothes and school records, and told his parents to tell A. B. Dennison, principal of the high school that he would return to Slippery Rock in time to enter school next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Hines were greatly relieved to hear from him, as they had worried for fear that he might have met with foul play.

They have written him and urged him to return to his home here and to resume his studies in the local high school at the start of the next term.

Spain Will Ask Portugal To Give Up Major Ramon Franco and His Companions

REVOLTERS FLED VIA AIRPLANES

By TOMAS A. LOAYZA
International News Service Staff Correspondent

MADRID, Dec. 18.—The Spanish government, after crushing the Republican rebellion begun last Friday and in full control of the country despite lingering strikes in several cities involving 500,000 men, decided today to ask the Portuguese government to extradite Major Ramon Franco and his 11 companions.

The request will be made to Portugal on the ground that the leader of the first aerial revolt in history seized the government planes for their flight out of the country after the Madrid coup collapsed, but it was generally agreed that Major Ramon Franco and his companions will probably be hailed before a tribunal on charges of subversive activities.

Little Donnie Schroeder Here To Visit Mother

Loaded with gifts the family of Irene Schroeder, came to New Castle today from Wheeling, West Virginia, to see her before Christmas holidays. In the group were John Crawford, Irene's father, little Donnie, her six year old son, her sisters, Mrs. Mayne Baum, Mrs. Joseph Schroeder, and Mr. and Mrs. Schoenian. Mrs. Schoenian, an older sister of Irene's adopted Donnie and is raising him.

Dressed in a sailor coat and sail or hat, with a bright red scarf, Donnie looked as attractive as ever. During lunch time he chattered almost incessantly and was the same lively, active little youngster he was when he was held in New Castle.

Shipping Paralyzed By Terrific Gale And Cyclone—Ships Break Anchors

(International News Service)
MOSCOW, Dec. 18.—A terrific cyclone raging over the Black Sea and coastal points today had paralyzed all port and shipping activities and endangered a number of vessels.

The Burma and Ateo, German and Italian respectively, tore loose from their anchors in Odessa Roads and were swept out to sea. Nothing has been heard of them since.

Most of the other foreign vessels in the path of the storm managed to slip into ports for safety, but the Soviet steamer Bakou and the Greek ship Combanis grounded on the Crimean Shoals.

The Dnieper, a Soviet ship, broke from her hawsers in the Odessa Roads and ripped away the entire side of a pier. The Soviet steamer Ajaristan has been waiting for three days to land her passengers.

Shoot To Kill Orders Will Bring Halt To Banditry It Is Believed

One Of Slain Hold-up Trio Is Identified As Orchestra Leader

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—One of three bandits slain last night in attempted robberies was identified by authorities today as Joseph Shoer, 35, formerly well known orchestra leader of Detroit and Madison, Wis.

The robber identified as Shoer was the sixth to be shot and killed here this week in attempted store holdups that went awry. Another victim, likewise an orchestra leader, was Henry Escalona, who was killed in a butcher shop holdup.

Shoer, who formerly led an orchestra in one of Detroit's largest night clubs, entered a Loop haberdashery last night and after purchasing a muffler drew a revolver.

Prisoner Flees Uniontown Jail

Youth Serving Long Term For Robbery, Makes Escape From County Jail

(International News Service)
UNIONTOWN, Dec. 18.—Making a rope of the bed-covering in his cell and sliding thirty-five feet from the third story of the county jail here to the ground, John DuBois, 19, who had served about three weeks of a 7 to 14-year sentence in Western Penitentiary, today made his escape after he had been brought back to testify in the trial of another prisoner charged with participating in holdups and robberies.

DuBois saved his way out of the cell and, lowering himself to the ground early this morning, fled before guards could apprehend him.

Edward Crago, 24, sentenced as a member of the same gang for from nine to eighteen years, was in the same cell with DuBois, but refused to follow his cell-mate down the improvised ladder.

Crago told police that he "didn't want to make a fool of himself."

The youthful DuBois, who engineered his escape today was a member of a hold-up gang whose members pleaded guilty not long ago to 12 hold-ups and robberies during the summer.

DuBois was brought back from Western Penitentiary and lodged in the juvenile department of the jail last Friday. He was to testify against an alleged member of the same gang.

EXPECT SUPREME COURT TO REVERSE CLARK'S DECISION

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The preponderant opinion in Washington is that the United States supreme court will reverse the decision of federal judge Wm. T. Clark and sustain the validity of the 18th amendment.

Nevertheless, most of the constitutional authorities who have closely studied the text of the Jersey jurist's decision admit that he put the matter before the high court in an entirely new light, and wet or dry, they spoke respectfully today of Judge Clark's reasoning and logic.

Meanwhile, the appeal which the government is taking directly to the supreme bench will be speeded in every way possible in order that the period of uncertainty may be shortened and agitation against the law lessened. Within the next few weeks the department of justice will argue the case to set the case for argument out of the regular order. A decision before the present term expires in June is hoped for.

New Provisional President Assumes Office Following Short Revolution

AMERICANS NOT ENDANGERED

(International News Service)
COLON, C. Z., Dec. 18.—General Manuel Orellane has assumed office as provisional president of Guatemala following a coup which ousted the government of Acting President Baudilio Palma, reports received here today stated.

The overthrow of the new ministry, recognized by President Hoover only a few days ago, came shortly after illness forced President Lazaro Chacon to vacate his office.

Reports received here said that the revolution was brief but accomplished with severe fighting.

Rumors of impending revolt in Guatemala have been current for several months, based on unrest and discontent rooted in the sharp economic depression prevalent in the country. Exporting of bananas, sugar and coffee form the chief trade of the country.

Heir To British Throne Ordered To Take Rest By Physician, Suffers Chill

ILLNESS NOT OF SERIOUS NATURE

(International News Service)
LONDON, Dec. 18.—Seized with a sudden chill while preparing to leave for a shooting expedition in Windsor Great Park, the Prince of Wales was ordered to rest today and all his immediate engagements cancelled.

The prince was ready to leave his residence, York House, St. James' Palace, when he complained of feeling ill. His equerry immediately summoned Sir Stanley Hewitt, physician-in-ordinary to the Royal household, who was one of the doctors who collaborated in bringing King George back to health after a serious illness two years ago.

Sir Stanley advised the heir to the throne to cancel all his engagements for the next few days and take a complete rest.

One of the Prince's equeries informed International News Service that his indisposition was not of a serious nature.

Turkish Government Faces Suit Brought By American Woman

Woman Wants Turkey To Pay $50,000 For Death Of Husband And Daughter

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 18.—As a latent aftermath to the terrific bombardment directed by Turkish artillery against the city of Jerusalem in 1917, Mrs. Maucha Hochstein, of Philadelphia, today declared her intention of filing a $50,000 claim against the Turkish government for the deaths of her husband and one daughter and the mental derangement of another daughter.

The claim will be instituted within a few days and forwarded to Secretary of State, Stimson at Washington for presentation to the American-Turkish mixed claims commission. Mrs. Hochstein said.

Rabbi Abraham Hochstein, the husband, went to Jerusalem in 1904 and when the bombardment of 1917 ceased his property had been destroyed and Hochstein and the couple's two daughters, Pearl and Lea, were interned in a camp at Damascus although a state of war did not exist between the United States and Turkey, Mrs. Hochstein declared.

Hochstein died in the Damascus camp, according to Mrs. Hochstein, and Pearl died later of grief and fear induced by her father's death. Lea is an inmate of the Nazareth hospital for the insane at Jerusalem due to fear and shock as a result of the death of her father, Mrs. Hochstein declared.

Huge Rail Order To Benefit Local Mills, Believed

Plants Here May Fill Part Of Pennsy's $15,000,000 Equipment Order

Steel mills of the New Castle district will in all probability benefit to some extent from the Pennsylvania Railroad's $15,000,000 order for new steel rails and attachments, Division Superintendent H. T. Frushour announced today.

The Pennsylvania announced its huge equipment order at Pittsburgh today. While none of the local mills roll steel rails at present, the superintendent explained that a large part of the spike order to be placed will probably be filled here. Other side orders call for new frogs, switches, spikes, tie plates, rail anchors and bolts.

Mr. Frushour, however, could not say definitely just how much the order would effect the plants here.

The sequence of a suit from the 9 downwards is placed at the back of the pack and the 10 spots in front of the deck. Hold the card in the left hand, with the 10 of spades exposed to the audience. While pretending to rub the front card with the right hand, place the thumb of that hand at the back of the pack, drawing the 9 of spades down and away, under cover of the palm of the hand.

Hold the front card again, and this time leave the palm card on the front of the pack, making it appear that you have rubbed a spot off the front card. The thumb should be moistened so that the card will come away from the back more easily.

THE VERNAL EQUINOX AND CELESTIAL LONGITUDE

By Arthur DeV. Carpenter

Those points on the celestial sphere where the ecliptic crosses the equator, and are known respectively as Vernal Equinox and Autumnal Equinox, are two very special points of reference. It is at the Vernal Equinox where the first celestial meridian extends from equatorial pole to pole. This celestial meridian is that imaginary line in the sky from which longitude is reckoned. All telescopes mounted for scientific work of accuracy, are "equatorially mounted," that is, the telescope's axis is parallel with the earth's axis and at right angles with the earth's equator. Longitude on the celestial sphere is reckoned eastward, and is spoken of as "hours of right ascension."

Ordinance Tabled Due To Objection Of $10,000 Clause

Delay Occasioned In Granting Of New Franchise To Railway Company

(International News Service)
WELLSVILLE, O., Dec. 18.—By a vote of 5 to 2, an ordinance granting a 25 year franchise to the Steubenville, East Liverpool and Beaver Valley Traction Company today was "laid down on the table for future consideration" because the company objected to a $10,000 clause.

Under the terms of the proposed ordinance the Carrier company would be required to pay the city of Wellsville $10,000 a mile for future street improvements along the right of way.

The company offered to pay $8,500 a mile as they are required to do in an ordinance passed by the East Liverpool council.

The troublesome ordinance which has been passed and reconsidered once already, will come up for action again next Monday.

in the West Virginia penitentiary. What I am doing is merely simple justice. If my clients say they robbed the station, and they have confessed to it, then it is unjust to hold this man Howell in prison. Dague wants to clear his conscience of the wrong done Howell, and he and Irene have described in full the robbery, the details of how they went in there, how much money was taken, where the till was located, what lights there were, and other minute details which lead me to believe they are telling the truth."

Deaths of the Day

The city is proceeding with its program and the men who are given work are doing good work, according to the city officials.

P. R. R. ADDS EXTRA MAIL COACH TODAY

That mail service between New Castle and Columbus might be expedited as much as possible during the holidays, the Pennsylvania railroad today placed an extra mail car on its regular New Castle-Columbus train. Other extra cars will be placed on different trains later this week.

Pennsylvania anticipates a boom in the Christmas mail volume this coming week-end.

Tree Seedlings Given In Contests

(International News Service)
ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 18.—In an effort to stimulate interest in farm forest projects, the State Conservation Commission has just awarded 19,000 young forest trees as prizes in guessing contests conducted at 18 county fairs during the fall.

A large pile of pine cones was used in each contest and a prize of 1,000 tree seedlings awarded the persons guessing the nearest to the correct number of cones in a pile.

In one instance, a winner guessed the exact number of cones, and in four cases the winning guess was within one of the correct number.

Drive 23,000 Miles From Buenos Aires

(International News Service)
DENVER, Colo., Dec. 18.—Two rugged Argentinians, serene and smiling, drove into Denver recently with 23,000 miles of travel over every imaginable type of road behind them.

Part of their trip was made over no road at all.

Signs on their automobile informed the world that they had left Buenos Aires March 31, this year.

In Bolivia, the motorists said, 300 miles of rivers and sand greeted them. They traveled 650 miles in Peru before encountering a road of any sort. In places they had to make their own road with pick and shovel.

Traveling in Central America they ran out of food and were forced to eat food with the Indians. Some of the Indians were savages and had to be pacified with trinkets.

Coming up through Mexico, the Argentinians drove 600 miles over railroad ties, no other roads being passable.

The South Americans, who said their names were Carlo Massacelle and Lorenzo Scuderi, expect to arrive in New York city about Dec. 15. They said their trip has cost them $5,000, of which $2,000 went for gasoline, oil and repairs.

Party For Son
On the occasion of his sixth birthday, Mrs. Laura Logan, 1242 East Washington street, entertained a number of little guests in honor of her son, Freddie.

The hours from 4 to 6 were spent at various games and amusements, clever Christmas novelties and favors being given the little folks. At the close of the play period Mrs. Logan, assisted by Mrs. James Nene, served refreshments to the tots, the table being cleverly decorated in all kinds of Christmas suggestions. The honor guest received a number of lovely gifts.

Those present were Jane Eleanor Duncan, Betty Jane Wright, Betty May Cope, Betty Cray, Margaret Valley, David Burchfield, Sister and Hubert Riley and the honor guest.

WOMEN WILL THANK THEIR HUSBANDS FOR SUGGESTIONS LIKE THIS

YOU MEN ought to lend your wives a hand when they select your Christmas gifts. That doesn't mean you must go shopping with them, and supervise the buying. All you need to do is mention how much you and any other man appreciates a box of good cigars.

You can even tell your wives and sisters that it's easy to buy good cigars. If they'll go to a store and ask which cigar most men buy, ten chances to one they'll get Bayuk "Phillies." Men like "Phillies" because they're made of ripe tobacco. Not of under-ripe, bitter-tasting top leaves; nor of over-ripe, flat bottom ones. Every leaf in a "Phillie" is a middle leaf—as mellow and smooth as the sun can make it.

You men know that nothing can make a Christmas more merry than a box of Bayuk "Phillies"—even though they are inexpensive! So drop a hint to your women-folks.

ANOTHER PROPOGANDA CHANCE

OPINION of Judge William Clark of Newark, N. J., in which he claims some basis for declaring unconstitutional the Eighteenth amendment to the constitution, will give a background for another wave of anti-prohibition propaganda, but—that is all.

The Eighteenth amendment has been before the supreme court on numerous occasions and each time has been declared constitutional. This decision of Judge Clark may eventually come before the supreme court, but we are certain that it will go the way of all preceding attempts to upset the amendment.

During the ten years that the amendment has been in the constitution, many moves have been made to nullify it, but all have been unsuccessful.

In these later years strenuous effort is being made to present the Eighteenth amendment as something that was slipped over on the nation, sort of placed on the doorstep over night. The facts are that the amendment was ratified by almost all of the states and that the procedure was not the work of a few days, or weeks, but a long drawn out and much discussed procedure.

Any enthusiast who harbors a feeling that Judge Clark's decision is going to open the way for the sudden return of the corner saloon, is doomed to continued disappointment, we fear. Prohibition is here to stay!

DEPORT ALL THE ALIEN GANGSTERS

The announcement that agents of the Immigration Bureau have arrested a well-known gangster in Chicago, and propose to deport him as an undesirable alien, is of prime importance to those who are interested in the war on crime.

It is the first move of this kind under the new Secretary of Labor, William N. Doak, and it gives an inkling of the policy which is to guide the administration of his office. Coming so closely on the heels of a Federal Court order for deportation in a somewhat similar case, this action assumes unusual significance. It means that the government has a powerful weapon at its disposal if it proposes to co-operate with the states and municipalities in stamping out the gangs which thrive in the large cities.

Crime is not confined to aliens or those of foreign birth. On the contrary, too much of it is committed by those born on the soil of the United States. But certain types of foreigners seem to be peculiarly successful in organizing and leading many of the crime syndicates. They find it easier and more profitable than earning an honest living. They are often the despair of the police. Once they get their citizenship papers, they imagine they are safe from interference on the part of the federal government. Indeed, it has been generally supposed that after five years the person admitted is he is to stay. Jurists, however, are now of the opinion that when one of these new citizens commits a crime he has violated the agreement which he made with the United States on taking the oath of allegiance. This included a promise to obey the laws of the country.

If there are any doubt about the right of the officials to banish crooks of foreign birth, then the sooner congress strengthens this part of the Immigration law the better it will be for all law-abiding citizens. Clean out all of the alien crooks and those who have not lived up to the promises they made when they were admitted. Make citizenship in this country mean something. That is one step in the battle against organized crime. But it is only one step. It must be followed by an aggressive assault on all criminals, regardless of the place of their nativity.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

UNCLE SAM: FINANCIER

Uncle Sam doesn't own the earth but he is a heavy investor in it, if not the majority stockholder.

American investments in foreign countries now total $7,500,000,000, according to government estimates. In addition to this, there are the war loans to former allies. These foreign investments are scattered throughout Europe, Asia, Africa, Latin America and Canada.

Canada and Latin America enjoy the benefits of the bulk of this capital investment, which is back of much of their industrial and mineral production, but European industries share in it to the extent of $1,352,000,000.

This is one "entangling alliance" George Washington probably did not foresee when he established that prolonged policy of "isolation" but it is, nevertheless, an alliance fraught with more complications than most paper treaties.

There can be no "isolation" for a nation whose nationals capitalize the world. Wherever money is, there you will find politics protecting it, and wherever Americans choose to invest their dollars their government must demand protection for them. Even though the government discourages a foreign investment, it cannot ignore the investor who ignores his government's advice.

The irony of the situation is that these same investments, which foreign nations invite, provoke the charge of "Yankee imperialism."

I got home an hour early last night and found another man calling on my wife. I was very much embarrassed. Please send me two dollars as my wife was also embarrassed."

The editor, so we are told, sent a check for $3, admitting the possibility that the stranger, too, might have been embarrassed.

ARE WE CRY-BABIES?

Wish I knew why these Torch Songs are so popular in these United States. Wish I could understand why this land of the free has become the home of the weeps.

A lad loves a lass. She says she loves him too. He believes her. She leaves him for another lad. He sobs his grief in public. . . . Nobody snickers at the Big Cry-Baby. All of us join in the soppy, sloppy chorus. Or maybe it's the maiden who loves the youth—and sees him turn fickle—and sees him walking down the avenue with another girl. Does SHE hide away with her lacerated heart? Not she. . . . Not today. She stands on a corner and cries as if that little heart would break—or dissolve in salty tears and flow away—down the gutter—all the way to the "unplumbed, salt, 'stranging sea."

These are lugubrious days. Such a sadness we're having. Such "drooping of warm tears." Such moaning! Such a mess! . . . And why, I'm asking again, all these drippy, weepy, Torch Songs?

What's happened to us? Have we lost our grip? Are we shell-shocked? Can we blame it on the war? Is it the stock crash, still? What's become of the gruff old codgers who used to roar at a whimpering young fellow: "Be a man or a mouse or a long-tailed rat! Why all the whining?"

Of course, we've always had Torch Songs—but the old ones were different. Remember "You Made Me What I Am Today?" Remember "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now?" Remember "That's How I Need You-o-oh?" But they were few and far between and now there's no "between" and they turn out the Torch Songs by the million.

But what I'd like most of all to know is this: "Are all these Torch Songs we're hearing these days just songs that mean nothing but not unpleasant melancholy, or do they mean that we've become a nation of men and women who yell when they're hurt, who advertise their grief in public, and yowl for the sympathy of every passing stranger?"

I hope they don't mean we're Cry-Babies. I hope we have iron in us still. I hope they don't mean we've become a howling, whimpering, sniveling bunch of mama's boys and girls. I surely do.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

VIGILANTES?

Mr. Jack Oakie, the movie actor, is finding out about Chicago; and as a former member of a church choir in Oklahoma, he is shocked. Most of the other actors already knew.

One well-known actor has said that it cost him $1,000 per week to play an engagement in Chicago. The gangsters called at his hotel and levied that amount against his salary check. The penalty for refusal was to be taken for a ride.

Perhaps his experience will subtract from the number of sentimental motion picture plays about "the little darling criminals, abused by mean policemen who insist upon punishing them or murder."

When it comes to stripping the clothes off a girl—doing what a couple of Los Angeles boys recently did—during a robbery and dragging another one out of an automobile and assaulting her, the tears of sympathy that drip down our weathered cheeks for the criminal do not seem to flow so freely. There is only one thing that can be done with the professional gunman—kill him.

There was one period of California history when living was as dangerous as it is now in Los Angeles. The road between Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara became so infested with bandits that the traveler was warned to ride only on broad daylight and then as fast as his horse could hit the road. One of the great-grandfathers of the motion picture actor Edmund Lowe, organized a company of Vigilantes and hanged them all. The road has been safe ever since.

It is time again for the Vigilantes.

Melodrama In Russian Court Considered A Staged Event

Trial By Soviet Of Accused Persons Believed Here To Have Been Staged To Impress World As Well As People Of Their Own Country

The trial and sentencing of the eight engineers in Russia on the charge of conspiring with outside powers for the overthrow of communism is looked upon as a well-rehearsed play for political effect in most quarters of the world, including the United States.

Referring to the course of the prosecution, the SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE says: "They have put on a wonderful melodrama with Stalin as Eliza carrying Russia over the ice to safety while the blood-hands of capitalism are baying on the trail. He ought to have a name for his little play. We suggest Vse Horosho Kogda Horosho Koncha Etsya. Shakespeare used the English equivalent, 'All's well that ends well.' But Stalin need not let that stop him. If he likes the idea, he can go ahead and confiscate it."

"The world may direct its carping criticism against flaws in the realism of the plot; movie directors undoubtedly could give the amateur dramatists of the ideal court-room scene," says the CLEVELAND NEWS, "but no such fine analysis will be made by the countless numbers of Russians who listened in or saw the pictures of the trial." The SCHENECTADY GAZETTE calls the trial the "most dramatic spectacle ever staged by a government."

And the HOUSTON CHRONICLE remarks: "In the regions controlled by Stalin and his associates, Moscow's Folies de 1930, no doubt, looked fishy to those individuals who lived beyond the mental and physical control of the soviets."

"Such a show as that staged in the courts of Moscow is unparalleled in recent times," declares the JACKSON CITIZEN PATRIOT, "which considers that 'it has demonstrated to the world that the soviet government, which is continually protesting its honesty, is not averse to the cheapest sort of a device for misleading the people upon whom it depends for support. The communists have complained bitterly that they are misrepresented in capitalist nations,' continues this paper. 'But they never will be satisfied in complaining again. For they have outdone all other efforts at political deception.'"

That "it was admirable propaganda galvanized all the wavering members of the proletariat into sentiment for protecting Russia against the capitalist countries," is the opinion of the CHATTANOOGA NEWS.

"Nothing helps better to line up the home folks in support of the government than making them believe foreign countries have designs on their country," notes the NEW BEDFORD EVENING STANDARD, since "in the face of a foreign menace, people are likely to forget their domestic."

As to the escape of the confessed conspirators from the death penalty, the CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE asks: "Is it reasonable to believe that the ruthless vengeance and despotic policy of the communist masters of Russia would suddenly feel the gentle influence of mercy? Common sense will look for the real motive and it is not obscure."

"The conspiracy trial was a great show. The sequel is illuminating." The DES MOINES TRIBUNE-CAPITAL remarks that "possibly the 'propaganda' aspect of the prosecution would seem a little less conspicuous if the soviets had promptly shot all eight. The out-of-side world may seem hard to please in these days," it concludes.

"The curtain thus drops on one of the most elaborate stage settings in the history of international drama, with the altruistic soviet playing an unfamiliar and unconvincing role," states the SPRINGFIELD (MASS.) UNION.

"One thing alone is tellerly clear," affirms the RICHMOND TIMES-UNION. "It is inconceivable that such a statesman as Briand be meditating armed intervention in Russia. Nor is it likely that either the British or the French Government has had any real connection with efforts to sabotage the Five-Year Plan."

As to the latter, the MILWAUKEE SENTINEL says: "The five-year production program apparently will fail, with a loss of prestige to the soviet government. It was necessary that a goat, or as it turned out, eight goats—be found. The commissars of Moscow can now say that eight engineers, in key positions, wrecked the five-year program by their traitorous machinations. The engineers, meanwhile, will languish as long as is necessary in prison. They are good patriots, sacrificing themselves to save the face of their government," concludes The Sentinel.

"Fact may have been blended with fiction in this trial," suggests the ASHEVILLE TIMES, which thinks that "for most part, the story of the court proceedings reads like a melodrama arranged for the teaching of the Russian people the lessons their soviet rulers are determined that they shall learn."

In the opinion of the NEW ORLEANS TIMES-PICAYUNE, "the soviet witnesses 'overspoke themselves, destroyed confidence in their own confessions, when they tried to implicate in such a conspiracy responsible leaders and officials in other lands.'"

As the MEMPHIS COMMERCIAL APPEAL puts it, "there was a conspiracy, nevertheless. We are confident it was not a conspiracy in which Pincare, Churchill and Lawrence of Arabia participated. The conspiracy was born in Moscow; it was not against but for the soviet regime; the conspirators were eight engineers and soviet officials; the purpose was to rouse the peasantry of Russia against Britain and France. Conversely, the purpose was to bring back Russian people to a nationalistic consciousness, which has necessarily waned in the face of a vague public grasp of an internationalistic program, which is itself too wide for average minds to comprehend," concludes The Commercial Appeal.

So also the JERSEY JOURNAL, which sees in the trial and in other deluges of Russian publicity, a "barage," which is "not intended so much to mystify and distract foreign enemies as to keep the eyes of Russia centered upon anything and everything except the plight of Russia."

According to the ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH, it is necessary to "consider the Russian temperament in appraising the extraordinary procedure—their intense emotionalism, their moody introspection, their fatalism."

TALKING OF YOUR ILLS

You magnify your ailments to the point where you have very few days free from worry about your condition.

Any slight indisposition you feel indicates a serious outcome.

You think of your physical condition to the exclusion of other things.

Centering your mind as you do, upon your mean feelings, the symptoms become greatly magnified in your mind.

Your pain increases largely because you think of it so much that your nerves become taut and cannot let down to rest and recuperate.

Scores of people are courting mental weakness because they fear that they may go insane.

It is true that frequent physical warnings of disease should be given attention.

COP WILL TEACH
WOMEN TO DRIVEDaring Officer Will Open
School Of Instruction
For Females

(International News Service)

EVANSTON, Ill., Dec. 18.—A staunch heart beats beneath the ribs of Policeman Frank Kreml, head of the Evanston accident prevention bureau, and he is that kind of man who sticks to his charted course in the face of all criticism.
Kreml recently announced that women are such terrible automobile drivers, that he is going to open a school for their instruction.For the next week he cringed every time the telephone rang and was afraid to look the mailman in the face—but he stuck to his guns.
He still plans to open the school for drivers of the feminine gender.As for these letters—Take one from a woman out in Ohio, for example. It reads: "Women bad drivers? Say, if Ohio ever passes a law requiring an intelligence test for drivers half of the men will fail."Another from Lansing, Mich.:
"Teach the men how to drive. They need it. It's men who break the traffic rules, not women. Men only use their brains to squeak out of responsibility for the traffic jams they cause."Steel "Fatigue" Theory Refuted
By Researcher

(International News Service)

CHICAGO Dec. 18.—There is no such thing as steel "fatigue," in the opinion of H. P. Moore, research professor of engineering materials at the University of Illinois.In an address before the City Club of Chicago, Professor Moore declared that if your garage mechanic tells you the broken axle in your car is due to the steel having become "fatigued," or crystallized he is all wrong.Extensive tests at the University of Illinois under Professor Moore's direction have revealed, he said, that imperfections in the metal, rather than so-called "fatigue," causes steel to snap."Ever since man began to ride in railroad cars," professor Moore declared, "it has been noted that steel subjected to constant vibration acted as if it had become 'fatigued.' When steel gets into that condition it snaps off as though it were brittle instead of being very stretchable materials; furthermore this snapping occurs suddenly without warning. A 'fatigue' failure in a steel rail or a car axle is one of the things greatly feared by railroad men, though fortunately it does not occur very often.""What really happens is not correctly speaking 'fatigue' at all. At some minute imperfection in the metal a crack starts and spreads just as a crack in a glass showcase spreads when people keep leaning on it. Eventually this crack spreads so far that this piece breaks."
Last month Professor Moore was awarded the annual medal of the American Iron and Steel Institute for his study of the properties of metals which have been subjected to repeated stresses.Find Mammoth Still Hidden In Greenhouse

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—A flower filled greenhouse was revealed in a police raid here as the hiding place of a mammoth alcohol still capable of producing 1,000 gallons daily.
Flowers and plants, tastefully arranged, concealed distilling equipment valued at $15,000. Four men were arrested after they had broken a second-story window and leaped to the street. One policeman and one of the prisoners were cut by glass.New Zealand's reserves of water power have been estimated at 2,500-3,000 horsepower.

Thomas Edison Answers Prohibition Questions

Six Questions On Prohibition Are Ably Answered By Great Inventor

Believes In Dry Law And Says It Should Be Enforced—Means Better Living

(International News Service)
NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 18.—Answers of Thomas A. Edison to six questions on prohibition propounded by the Anti-Saloon league of New Jersey today were furnished International News Service by James K. Shields, superintendent of the organization.
The questions and answers are as follows:
Question 1—Do you approve of the 18th amendment to the constitution of the United States, and if so, why?
Answer—Yes, it is a necessary aid to permit practical enforcement of prohibition all over the country.
Question 2—Has it helped the industrial and economic side of America at home and strengthened the industrial standing of our nation abroad?
Answer—Yes, and to a greater extent than realized.
Question 3—In your judgment, are children better fed, clothed and educated since the coming of national prohibition than they were before?
Answer—In my judgment I would say decidedly yes. In support of this opinion and in this connection let me cite my experience as a manufacturer, which is similar to that of other manufacturers. On pay day before prohibition, hundreds of pale-faced women, shabbily dressed, some with faded shawls around their heads, appeared at our factory at West Orange. They were waiting to get some of their husbands' money before they got to a saloon. Within a year after the amendment, not a single woman appeared. Surely we Americans do not want a return to this state of affairs. Undoubtedly the condition of the mother indicates the condition of the children, although they are perhaps a little better off than she, because she will do anything to the giving up of her life to protect them.

Question 4—What attitude should the womanhood of America hold towards prohibition and why?
Answer—Woman is the custodian of the home and children. She certainly, if a normal woman, does not desire the introduction of narcotics into her home, which in many cases changes a human man into a brute.
Question 5—Are the boys and girls of America more likely to develop a higher degree of physical and mental fitness and become better and more useful citizens under national prohibition of the liquor traffic or under the old license system or any form of state or government control?
Answer—Yes, they certainly cannot develop on alcohol and other narcotics.
Question 6—Should 18th amendment be retained as a blessing to our American homes today and to those of future generations?
Answer—Yes. Enforcement is getting more practical day after day. We now attack the large manufacturer right in our midst instead of men with flasks and home brew.

Westfield Church White Gift Services

Christmas Program Will Be Given At 11 O'clock Service Sunday Morning

The Christmas service that has been arranged for the Westfield Presbyterian church for Sunday morning is being sponsored by the entire congregation. It will be different from any program that has been given before, and will be greatly appreciated by all groups. The church will be beautifully decorated with white and tinsel, with touches of the bright Christmas colors, all centering in a white manger, representing the manger of Bethlehem. The following service will be presented at 11:00.
Processional—"O Come All Ye Faithful," the choir.
Invocation.
Hymn—"Hark the Herald Angels Sing," the congregation.
Scripture Reading—"The Story of the Shepherds," Alice Fullerton.
Anthem—"Across the Silent Night."
The Legend of the White Gifts—Marie McCurley.
The Response to the Legend—Mary Wallace.
Christmas Hymn—"Holy Night," the beginners and the primary children.
Scripture Reading—"The Story of the Wise Men," Jean Brewster.
Exercise—"The Three Wise Men," Lyle Gibson, Earl Emery, Verne Padon.
Women's Chorus—Gifts For Jesus. Remarks by the minister.
Prayer.
"Away in a Manger"—the primary girls.
Recitation—"Gifts for the King," Bobby Miller.
Presentation of Gifts: This includes special contributions from various organizations, and baskets of vegetables, fruit, canned goods, clothing, toys, etc., from the congregation. These are to be wrapped in white if possible.
Recitation—"We Come With Our Offerings," Marian Clark.
The presentation of the offering of money as a white gift.
Carol singing by the choir as an offertory.
The doxology and offertory prayer.
Hymn—"Joy To The World."
Benediction and choral response.
The Mission Band will meet during the Sunday School lesson period. The Christmas service of the Christian Endeavor at 8:00.

Peter's Adventures

PETER Baffles RED ANTS
Peter had learned wisdom from the little people of the meadow. He had found out that there was a right time to move and a wrong time, and that a fellow had more luck if he didn't do anything in too much of a hurry. So although Peter saw that the Reds were creeping up the hill to attack him, he made believe he didn't guess what they were up to. Peter looked the landscape over but all the while out of the corner of his eye, he watched the Red Ants. Up the hill they crawled, pace by pace. And at last one Redskin, more daring than the rest, laid her claws upon the trusty spike. Quick as a flash Peter grappled with her, shook the spike from her grasp and toppled her over. The surprised Red who would have stolen Peter's spike rolled over and over carrying a companion or two to the bottom of the Ant Hill with her.
Peter, spike in hand, sat perfectly still on the hilltop. Now this wasn't in the least what the Redskins had expected. They had hoped to capture the boy. Failing they expected the boy to attack them. Peter sat still and did nothing. It was up to the Redskins to make the next move. They didn't quite know what to do. So they, too, did nothing. But Ants are very wise. They turn to trickery when honestly will not serve them.
"We heard you say that an execution was going on and we were just coming up the hill to see it," remarked the Redskin leader as briskly as though she were telling the truth, which she wasn't. "However, come to think of it, we are missing a lot of sport by not being on the spot. Looking on at anything is all very well only when you can't take part in it. Come on, sisters!"

Rushing Season For Sororities Ends Today Noon

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Dec. 18.—Rushing season for sororities at Westminster College ended today noon and pledging of freshmen members by the seven campus organizations will take place this afternoon.
The seven organizations: Alpha Gamma Delta, Chi Omega, Sigma Kappa, Pi Rho Phi, Phi Delta Chi, Kappa Alpha Alpha, and Omicron Mu Gamma, submitted closed bids yesterday to Dr. C. A. Dawson, umpire. Dr. Dawson in turn notifies each freshman girl to mark in the order of preference the sororities on the list.
Starting last week, sororities were busy entertaining freshman girls at parties and other activities. Each sorority was allowed one rushing party to which freshman girls were invited. Rules governing these parties as well as the whole rushing season were formulated by a committee of the faculty including: Dr. C. A. Dawson, Dean Charles Freeman, Mrs. C. B. Robertson, dean of women, Mrs. Ben Ewema, Miss Elizabeth Stewart, and Miss C. Dorothy Kirkbride.

Sore Throat Goes in One Day OR MONEY BACK

After days or even weeks of swallowing cough syrups and strong, disagreeable gargles, what a relief to turn to the wonderful new sipping treatment, Crea-Lyptos.
Crea-Lyptos is so successful that it is sold by druggists everywhere under an ironclad guarantee of money back if it does not end sore throat or the hardest cough due to colds, too much smoking, etc., in 24 hours.
Just sip enough Crea-Lyptos to cover throat—and through its taste is pleasant, you instantly feel it hit the spot—penetrates, saturates, clings, soothing and healing as if your throat had been "painted."
Get a bottle of Crea-Lyptos today from Eckerd's. Remember, no cost if Crea-Lyptos does not stop that cough.

Reproduction Of Mount Vernon Will Be Erected For Exposition In Paris

Mount Vernon, already known to millions of Americans and foreigners—and to many of them intimately—before the commencement, in 1932, of the George Washington Bicentennial Celebration. For an exact reproduction of this famous National shrine is now in the process of construction in the Bois de Vincennes, at Paris, France, where the International Colonial and Overseas Exposition, sponsored by the French Government, will be held from May 1 to October 31 of next year. Among other countries which have accepted the invitation of France to participate in the exposition are Italy, Belgium, Holland, Portugal, Denmark,

England and the United States, together with each of their protectorates, colonies or other outlying possessions. There will be appropriate exhibits from the United States, Porto Rico, Hawaii, Guam, Samoa, Virgin Islands, Alaska, the Canal Zone and Philippine Islands. This life-size reproduction of Mount Vernon which the United States Government is sending over to France—and which, incidentally, may be permitted to remain there permanently as a token of perpetual friendship and good will—was made possible through an appropriation by Congress of $250,000, for the official participation of this country in the Paris exposition. It will form the central buildings and house America's main exhibit. When completed sometime in February the replica will contain 250,000 feet of American lumber, each piece bearing a number after the fashion of skyscrapers. French carpenters under the direction of American experts, including the architect, Chas. K. Bryant, of Richmond, Va., are rapidly assembling the material, 110,000 feet of which—a remarkable demonstration of American efficiency—were actually on the high-seas, bound for France within twelve days after the contracting company, Sears-Roebuck had been given the order.

Victim Of Own Train, Evidence Clearly Shows

P. R. R. Freight Conductor
Killed When Boarding
Moving Car, Belief

Definite certainty that Samuel R. Richards, local Pennsylvania railroad freight conductor was killed by his own train as it was leaving the Girard, O. yards on Wednesday morning, was established by evidence found on the train after a thorough investigation here.

Car inspectors at Girard found his badly mangled body in the yards some time after the accident occurred. His train had operated to New Castle without him, the men in the caboose supposing him to be with the engine crew and the engineers supposing him to be in the caboose.

Officials presume that Mr. Richards was boarding a freight car as the train was commencing the trip, and evidently lost his balance and fell beneath. He was not attempting to board the caboose.

Funeral services for the deceased, well known to New Castle railroad men, will occur Saturday from the Croton Methodist church. He had resided on Erie avenue.

Congressional Debate Over Reapportionment Centers About Aliens

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The U. S. constitution (see paragraph 3, section 2 of article 1, with modification embodied in the fourteenth amendment) provides that "representation . . . shall be apportioned among the . . . states according to their respective numbers . . . of free persons"—un- taxed Indians alone excluded.
No one disputes that this means children not yet of voting age, as well as grown men and women. But does it include unnaturalized foreigners, living in the country?
The affirmative always has been assumed. It is assumed in the reapportionment law, which allows representatives to the various states for the decade beginning with the 1932 elections—the law which taxes 24 representatives away from the rural states and gives them to the industrial states because the latter have outgrown the former.

"It is an entirely unwarranted assumption," says Congressman (and senator-elect) L. J. Dickinson of Iowa, who will lead this winter's campaign on Capitol Hill to cut aliens out of the apportionment totals.
The crux of the problem is: Will changing the law be sufficient or must the constitution be amended?
Amending the constitution is so difficult and takes so long that the rural contingent in Washington deems it is an almost hopeless expedient to resort to, but a law can be changed by a simple congressional majority. Hence it is of the highest importance to the senator-elect from the almost exclusively agricultural Hawkeye state (which faces a loss of two representatives if the new act stands, unaltered) to sell the idea that a change in the law alone is necessary.

"Is it likely," queries the Iowa, "that the constitution makers meant to grant congressional representation to foreigners?—chance visitors?—or, if actual residents, residents with little interest in the country to acquire its citizenship?"
"Impossible!"
"Manifestly the term 'persons' was employed to make representation broadly inclusive of all Americans by birth or naturalization—men, women and children and even, within constitutionally-stated limitations, slaves, who were regarded as property then—but certainly not unnaturalized aliens."

Congressman Dickinson estimates that omission of aliens from the apportionment count would reduce the agricultural states' loss and the industrial states' corresponding gain in representatives from 24 to 12.

"Which, in itself, in the long run," he adds, "is pretty sure to prove excessive."

"Why? Why, because post-war deflation affected agriculture, and immediately the industries not until after a long interval. During this interval population naturally gravitated from the depressed farming areas toward the cities, whose prosperity, although artificial, nevertheless paid real money for the time being. Now that the cities are depressed, in turn, we may expect a turn in the tide toward the farms."
"A fairer time for reapportionment will be 10 years hence."

"A fairer time for reapportionment," answers Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, the reapportionment act's author, "would have been 10 years ago."
"Supposing it to be true that the city-ward trend is on the point of turning country-ward and that the

Checks Mailed To Bank Depositors

Connellsville Citizens, Depositors in Defunct Bank, Will Get Dividends

(International News Service)
CONNELLVILLE, Pa., Dec. 18.—Checks totalling $240,000 representing first dividend payment of 40 per cent, were sent today to the controller of currency at Washington, D. C. Lloyd Littrell, receiver for the Union National Bank of Connellsville, announced today.
The Union National Bank was closed last July.
With the announcement that the checks had been mailed Littrell said that about 5,000 accounts were represented and would benefit by the distribution of the funds. Efforts are being made, he added, to secure the actual placing of the checks in the hands of the people in Connellsville and vicinity before the Christmas holiday.
A first dividend payment of 75 per cent was announced by Littrell at the First National Bank at Vandervbilt, amounting to $94,000.
Distribution of approximately $334,000 to people in this section will thus be accomplished within a short time. More dividends are expected at a later date, the receiver announced.

About 10:30 o'clock last night Harry Alford, 915 Adams street, was on his way to his garage at the rear of his place of residence, when he was held up at the point of a gun by a young man, who took his money, amounting to $25, his driver's and owner's license cards and his billfold.
The police were notified at once and officers responded. They were unable to get any trace of the hold-up man, who was described as being about 24 years of age, five feet 11 inches in height, weighing 165 pounds and wearing a light soft hat, light suit and light overcoat.

Youth Confesses Four Robberies

(International News Service)
WARREN, O., Dec. 18.—Police today were investigating statements made by Peter Kolezar, 19, in which he was said to have confessed to four thefts and implicated two other youths in a series of Trumbull county farm robberies.
Kolezar, according to police, confessed that he aided another youth in torturing an aged woman on the Alexander Sherman farm at Verion. He said he placed a rope about the woman's neck and threatened to strangle her unless she revealed the hiding place of her money.

His companion in the attack, the youth said, was already on his way to Florida with a third youth who has aided them in several robberies according to police.

Illinois Bank Is Robbed Of $4,000

Plano, Illinois State Bank Visited By Gang Of Bandits

(International News Service)
AURORA, Ill., Dec. 18.—Four young bandits who robbed the Plano State bank 15 miles south of here escaped with $4,000 in currency, a checkup by bank officials showed today.
The gunmen forced everyone within the bank to lie down on the floor while they gathered up the bank's cash. Charles Jones, cashier, was slugged on the head with a pistol when he attempted to raise his head.
The bandits drove northward in a new sedan bearing a Wisconsin license.

Lunch was served by the hostess. There were 23 present, as follows: Mrs. Beulah Hohman, Mrs. Mary Winder, Mrs. Martha McCommons, Mrs. Nellie McNulty, Mrs. Florence Everhart, Mrs. Nettie Shoaff, Mrs. Anna McClung, Mrs. Belle Pollock, Mrs. Emma Foster, Mrs. Will Cunningham, Mrs. Stella McGleary, Mrs. Lola Eppinger, Mrs. Mabel Hogue, Mrs. Minnie Allen, Miss Ethel Flack, Mrs. Amanda Flack, Miss Nellie Foster, Mrs. George Fenick, Miss Margaret Peebles. There were three children present and one visitor, Mrs. Harry Miller.

Miss Beulah Graham is home from the hospital. Her condition seems very favorable.
Mrs. Margaret Elliott has contracted a case of mumps.
The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McNulty has been on the sick list.
Young Edwin Foster's condition remains about the same.
Friends here were sorry to hear of Miss Jessie Kildoo being operated on at the Jameson Memorial hospital for appendicitis.

RAILROAD MEN TELL LOSS-DAMAGE VIEWS

A program out of the ordinary marked the regular session of the Pennsylvania railroad's loss and damage freight prevention committee, held Wednesday afternoon at freight house headquarters here. Chairman E. A. Fenton, division supervising agent presided.
Each of Superintendent H. I. Frushour's staff called upon his own men present for short talks on ways and means of preventing damage.

The employer who complains about the noise his stenographer makes in chewing gum, ought to be glad she doesn't eat walnuts.

CALLS KONJOLA "WONDERFUL!"

And No Wonder She Does—Just Read What New And Different Medicine Did.

MRS. GEORGE FURBER

Konjola is a medicine of deeds, not words; of performances, not promises.
Konjola—seven million bottles of which were used in two years—is famous for results in tens of thousands of cases similar to that of Mrs. George Furber, 2445 Westport Street, Baltimore, Md., who says:
"I suffered from stomach trouble, constipation and nervousness. Every morning I got up tired, for I could not sleep. Gas and bloating followed every meal. Almost every day I had terrible headaches. But, after using five bottles of Konjola I feel better in every way. I sleep soundly; food digests; constipation is ended. I think Konjola is just wonderful."
Isn't this the medicine you are seeking; one that does such things? Konjola is for the old and young; for all the family.
Konjola is sold by Love & McGown, the druggists, 204 E. Washington St., this city.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

First Quarterly Conference Held In Ward Church

Dr. C. G. Farr Presides Over
Meeting; Other News Notes
Of Seventh Ward

The first quarterly conference of the new church year was held Wednesday evening in the Mahoning Methodist church. Dr. C. G. Farr, superintendent of the New Castle district of Erie conference of the Methodist church, presided. The conference was conducted following the mid-week prayer service.

During the meeting various business matters of the church were transacted. Officers elected since the last quarterly conference were approved and reports were given. One of the most important topics of the meeting was Mrs. D. D. Stepp being unanimously recommended by the quarterly conference for a local minister's license. Mrs. Stepp attended Erie conference training school for local preachers at Cherry Run, Pa., last summer. There is a five-year course of study for the ministry and it leads to the ordination of local deacon and local elder orders when the course is completed. At the mid-week prayer service preceding the conference, Dr. Farr spoke, telling of his trip when traveling in the Holy Land. His talk was very interesting and enjoyed by all present.

Sanity Hearing
For Dynamiter

NEW KENSINGTON, Pa., Dec. 18.—A commission has been appointed to examine the mental faculties of William York of Valley Heights, who allegedly plotted to kill his wife and six children Friday with 25 nitro-glycerine caps and gas. York is being detained in Westmoreland county jail, while his family's needs are being met by the Salvation Army.

INVENTS DEVICE
TO END GAS MENACE

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—A device which, it is hoped, will put an end to the menace of the deadly carbon monoxide gas and which at the same time may save a billion dollars annually in gasoline bills has been invented by Dr. Miller Reese Hutchinson, former chief engineer and personal representative of Thomas A. Edison.

The invention is a simple machine with only a few parts and weighing less than a pound and a half. It registers through an ammeter dial and indicates on a graduated scale what percentage of unused fuel is passing out through the exhaust of a motor. The automobile driver or pilot from this reading can adjust his fuel to the proper mixture, where necessary making the mixture more lean so as to complete the combustion.

Dr. Hutchinson's device is based on the catalytic qualities of platinum, and has been used successfully for six months, he said, on an airplane owned and flown by his son, Jack Hutchinson, as well as in automobile and other engines.

Pillows Being Made
In Secrecy At Home

Secrecy for the past couple weeks has been the keynote at the Margaret L. Henry childrens home and it grows more pronounced as Christmas draws near.

It all concerns a certain group of bouddist pillows that are being made by several of the girls (and several boys) of the home. These pillows are going to be presented to—wait a minute! Mustn't let the cat out of the bag. They are going to be presented to three women whom the children like very, very much.

Almost every evening after school hours the children working on the pillows tip-toe up to their bedrooms, open dresser drawers quietly, glance around cautiously, take out scissors, thread, needles, yarn, thimbles and then—the pillows.

They are attractive pillows, different colors, different designs, neatly worked. They stand for many hours of work, conscientious thought.

Everyone is in on the glorious secret except Miss Margaret Henry, Mrs. Lida Green and Mrs. Madge S. Place, matron and assistant matrons of the home.

But Christmas is only a few days away, the secret is kept religiously and the keepers of the pillows are now looking around for some suitable pillow stuffing.

Colors and what boy or girl does not love this story of Joseph. For the evening after Christmas a party for the parents of the children has been planned and at this time a review of the work will be given as well as an exhibition of the hand work that has been done.

LEARN 'EM THE ANSWERS
"Do you object to hecklers?" "Not under certain circumstances," answered Senator Sorghum. "They are a great help if you can meet 'em beforehand and have 'em well rehearsed."—Washington Star.

One cause of things is the fact that so many backbones get limber if the lower end isn't resting on a soft cushion.

At the election Marjory Snyder was chosen president; Mary Brown, vice president; Esther Ferree, treasurer and Pearl Hockenberry, secretary.

An interesting missionary program was carried out by Pearl Hockenberry and Marjorie Snyder.

January 22, will mark the date of the next meeting, at the home of Mrs. Daniel Hughes, 410 Pine street.

Christmas Party
At Oak Street

All Pupils Will Have Pleasant
Time Tonight Through Efforts P. T. A.

Pupils of the Oak street school will have the time of their lives this evening when they attend the Christmas party being staged at that school by the Parents-Teachers association of the school.

Through the generosity of the association, the pupils of the school will enjoy a good time and receive a treat consisting of a popcorn ball, candy, an orange, a box of crayons and a drawing book.

In addition, there is a fine tree on the school property which has been decorated with electric lights and which causes widespread interest in the affair.

Santa Claus and his many helpers will be there tonight in person and make the distribution of the treat. The children of the school are looking forward with great interest to this evening.

THEATER MARQUEE IS ATTRACTING NOTICE

Lending a distinct metropolitan touch to New Castle's business district, the new brilliantly-illuminated $5,000 marquee of the Victor theater is attracting notice. The electric lighting effect contributes considerably to the appearance of East Washington street.

The marquee contains 1,450 electric lights and has a total wattage of 25,000 watts.

Many Fine Contributions Received For Children Of Ex-Service Men

ENDORSE BANQUET FOR NATIONAL HEAD

At the meeting of the Harry L. McBride Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held last evening in the Legion Home Association Building, the committee in charge of collecting toys for the children of deserving ex-service men, reported that they had met with a fine response from the public, and that a great many articles of this nature have been received.

These have been put in presentable shape and will be distributed just before Christmas. The post is still accepting toys and anyone desiring to make a contribution, may do so by notifying Chairman R. H. Montgomery, or any member of the post or the committee.

The matter of bringing National Commander Paul C. Wollman, of Baltimore, Md., here for a banquet and address, has received the endorsement of the Tri-County Council, composed of representatives of the V. F. W. in Lawrence, Beaver, and Butler counties, and plans are now being made by the members of the local post for such an event.

It is planned to have National Commander Wollman here late in the winter, when he will tell of the work of the organization along legislative lines in Congress, and of other matters of importance in the National program of the V. F. W.

John Williams was elected a trustee of the post, succeeding Frank S. Nessel, whose term had expired.

The post also approved the action of the executive committee to bring Donata Colafemina, a member of the Boston English Grand Opera Company here for a concert in January.

District Commander James A. Bell informed members of the post that a charter had been granted a new V. F. W. post in Beaver Falls, which would be formally instituted on Sunday, December 28. A preliminary meeting was held last Sunday which was largely attended by local members and a big delegation.

Commander Bell to Beaver Falls, when the post will receive their charter and be instituted.

Sons Of Veterans Christmas Party To Be Held Tonight

Pleasing Program Has Been Arranged By The Committee In Charge

Annual Christmas party and entertainment of Oscar L. Jackson Camp No. 249, Sons of Union Veterans for its members and those of the auxiliary and the members of their families, will be an even of this evening in the Sons of Union Veterans hall in the city building.

There will be plenty of entertainment for all, young and old, including a treat for the kiddies, and the distribution of valuable gifts to be given the more fortunate.

Present indications are for a record crowd on this occasion.

Auxiliary Will Initiate Class

Big Evening Is Looked Forward To By Auxiliary To McBride Post

Members of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Harry L. McBride Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, are looking forward to one of the biggest meetings of the year this evening, when a class of approximately 20 will be initiated into the order.

The Auxiliary, in spite of the huge gains in membership made during last year, are continuing their efforts to establish another record during the coming twelve months and are making rapid strides.

Other important matters will be discussed at the meeting this evening and a President Potter is desirous of a full attendance of the membership.

ELEPHANTS TO MEET TONIGHT

Frank Mack, president of the South Side Elephant Club announces a special meeting of that organization at 1205 South Mill street, tonight.

The purpose of the meeting is to make final plans regarding the securing of a club house. At the present time the members are contemplating renting a place on East Long avenue.

"Newsy Notes" Out For December

"Newsy Notes" the little magazine published by the pupils of North street school, has been issued for December and an attractive and interesting booklet it is this month.

The cover design, a clever manipulation of a couple of deer heads combined with conventional design, is the work of Leroy Cox and Clarence Brown, students of Grade 6A, who with the aid of Miss Frieswater, the art teacher, completed both back and front covers.

The magazine contains a number of articles by the pupils which show much literary ability, even in the lowest grades and the entire magazine is a fitting example of the work turned out by the pupils of North street school.

There will be a Christmas program in the school auditorium Friday afternoon when the pupils will have a playlet and other forms of entertainment.

Girl Eats Meal After Eight Days

WESTON, W. Va., Dec. 18.—Clarice Wilmoth, 19, ended her self-imposed "hunger strike" of more than a week yesterday by eating her noon and evening meals at the Lewis county jail, where she is a prisoner.

Sheriff David E. Brown said. The girl was arrested at Camden, W. Va., on a bad check charge and is awaiting grand jury action.

Why should you let housework spoil your hands?

YOU ask any beauty editor. Look in the magazine and newspaper articles. You'll find "Vaseline" Petroleum Jelly recommended all the time to keep the hands soft.

Follow the advice of those people who know. Apply "Vaseline" Jelly to your hands at night and wear old cotton or silk gloves. When you manicure your nails, wrap a little cotton around a dull orange stick, dip it in the Jelly and work back the cuticle.

These two easy things will make a world of difference in the looks of your hands. We all have to wash dishes, and dust furniture, or pound typewriters or work in gardens. But our hands need not advertise the necessary toil to the world. Lay in a store of "Vaseline" Jelly and use it freely. Get a jar today just for your own personal use. Don't delay.

Illustrated Story Will Be Presented

Dr. Charles E. Peirce To Give Story Of The "Three Wise Men"

GROVE CITY, Dec. 18.—Dr. Chas. E. Peirce, pastor of the M. E. church, is planning a unique Christmas Eve service on next Wednesday evening, December 24th. At the regular prayer meeting hour, 7:30, the story of "The Three Wise Men" will be told and illustrated by stereopticon slides. These slides have been secured from the State Museum at Harrisburg.

D. A. R. TO MEET

The General Hugh Mercer Chapter of the Daughters of the Revolution will hold its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. C. F. Fithian, Washington Blvd., on Friday evening, Dec. 19th. Mrs. O. O. Bashline, Mrs. C. F. Fithian and Mrs. M. W. Graham will speak on "My Trip Abroad."

ON AIR TONIGHT

This evening, December 18th, at 8 o'clock, the Grove City college radio broadcasting station WSAJ will be on the air with a program of music and readings. It is planned to make this a weekly feature, sponsored jointly by the college and the Grove City Commercial Club. Prof. R. G. Walters of the Teachers Training Department will be in general charge assisted by Dr. Herman Poehlman of the music department.

OPEN EVENINGS

Starting today the local Postoffice will be open evenings until nine o'clock. Postmaster A. H. Firm states that the Christmas rush has already started here. Monday a heavy volume of mail consigned to the Pacific Coast was sent by the local office.

COLLEGE TO RECESS

Grove City College will be in recess from December 20 until January 5. It is made known today. This vacation period will be provided for students to spend the Yuletide at home.

The student body of 650 are making ready this week to leave the last of the week. Christmas parties of students and exchange of gifts are taking place this week.

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—One of the oddities which attracted a great deal of attention at the poultry exposition held recently in conjunction with the International Livestock Exposition was a mechanical hen, a part of the department of agriculture exhibit.

This fowl of wheels, wires and bellows revealed a cross section which, when operated, traced food through the blood stream and demonstrated the workings of the egg "factory." Tiny mechanical men performed various functions in the different departments of the "plant."

While these robots made the yolk, added the white and covered the combination with the shell of the egg, the hen, with the aid of a phonograph record, delivered a lecture describing the process.

Pay Ransom For Release Of Ward

(International News Service)
CHICAGO HEIGHTS, Ill., Dec. 18.—Released near Danville, Ill., last night by kidnapers who are said to have been paid $50,000 ransom.

James Ward, reputed wealthy Chicago Heights bootlegger, today was expected to return home.

Ward was held captive since last Saturday night when four men seized him near his home. He is reported to have gained his freedom only after members of his family paid the kidnapers $50,000.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Perrine, a son.

Dolly Pizor was a New Castle caller Saturday evening.

Don't Wish Poor Health On Children

Dr. Clendening Says Over-Doctoring Is Prob-blem

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.
"Child Guidance" is a phrase which is coming to indicate something new and different from the old ideas of "how to bring up children."

There is a great deal of it going on in the world today—some good and some bad, and some of it very bad indeed. Modern psychologists are apt to accept as gospel nearly any new and gaudy doctrine and palm it off on the public as the real thing, whether it has any record of success in practice or not.

From the physician's viewpoint—that is, from the viewpoint of one primarily interested in the ills of the body—there are several kinds of problem children.

First there is the mental defective. This defectiveness may be so concealed that no one suspects it, the parents least of all. Only an application of the Binet-Simon intelligence test brings it to light. The child may get a certain way in school and then stick. Parents and teachers blame it for not working harder. Such a child will react to the attempt to make it do something beyond its mental powers by playing hokey, or with irritable nervous attacks or worse delinquencies. A great many people never get beyond the mental age of 12, yet when fitted with tasks equal to their abilities, they lead happy and useful lives.

Physical handicaps may lead to abnormal shyness and sensitiveness. Discouragement over long drawn out treatments, and a sense of injustice with fate may be a part of such a child's mental makeup. Such conditions must be met directly by psychological methods.

Then there is the over-doctored child. Some doctor has said something: "This child is threatened with this or that disease." He unquestionably did it with the best of intentions, but he created an atmosphere very unfortunate for the happy development of that child's personality. Every time the child starts to do something it ought not to, some grown-up says: "Let it have its way, the poor little thing is doing that because its health is poor." The child quickly learns to have poor health, or screaming spells, or breath holding spells whenever it wants anything. It takes a great deal of honest psychotherapy to straighten such a child out.

Some children seem from birth directed towards a nervous type of temperament. As Dr. Esther L. Richards recently pointed out to a group of children's specialists, the child who has enuresis, night terrors, gas vomiting, muscular twitchings (tics) or eczema grows up into the adult with such things as mucous colitis, asthma, dyspepsia, fatigue and constipation. Such children need careful guidance. They are often precocious and thus have forced on them extra tasks and rapid promotion in school work for which they are not ready.

Temperamental differences of this kind between children are not always easy to explain. They develop under conditions of environments which prove ideal for another child—one brother or sister in a family may be the neurotic one and the others all robust.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Four pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1439 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Hygiene of Women," "Infant Feeding" and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Normal Diet," "List of Books for Mothers," "Bed Wetting," "Diet of the Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

Mayor's Committee To Handle Clothing

Salvation Army And Rescue Mission Turn Clothes
Over To Potter

Ensign V. Thomsen, Salvation Army, Benjamin Watkins, City Rescue Mission and Orville Potter, general chairman, mayor's relief committee, met with mayor William H. Gillespie, Wednesday afternoon and out of the session may come a more efficient system of distribution of relief here.

The Salvation Army and the Rescue Mission agreed to move all their clothing to the Carnegie auditorium, where it will be distributed to the needy. In other words the distribution of clothing will now be centralized and persons who need clothing should apply to Mr. Potter.

Christmas baskets also came in for discussion and it resulted in Thomsen and Watkins agreeing to furnish Potter of the mayor's committee, with a list of persons whom the Salvation Army and Rescue mission will furnish baskets, so there will be as little duplication as possible.

Potter agreed that the mayor's committee from the Carnegie auditorium will distribute baskets to other persons in need of foodstuff and issued a public request after the session to all church organizations which intend to furnish baskets to notify him of the persons who are to receive them.

Potter announced that the mayor's committee will welcome foodstuffs and if persons who wish to furnish food will call him at 3106, he will be glad to have it collected. Serviceable clothing for children, also shoes, is needed badly, he stated.

There is just as much money in this country as ever before, but it seems to be waiting a false beard and traveling incognito.

Appropriate motto for the younger generation: "Neck and double-neck."

BALLOON TRAVELS LONG DISTANCE

(International News Service)
CHARLEROI, Pa., Dec. 18.—A toy balloon, sent up here by a boy and a girl here, traveled between 650 and 700 miles before it landed in Ontario, Canada.

The balloon was loosed by Sam Scotch and Edna Julianna, both of whom attached their names to the bag before it was released. Two days after the balloon was sent away Miss Julianna received a letter from June Ronsinger, of Bayham, Ontario, telling of the finding of the balloon while hunting. Bayham, it was estimated, is approximately 675 miles from here.

Gentlemen, I Give You OLD ENGLISH

I believe if George Arliss were asked for a toast to his favorite character, he would say, 'Gentlemen, I give you that grand old sinner 'OLD ENGLISH'.

John Galsworthy, who has written so many wonderful things, has to my notion, done one of his best pieces of work in this play.

On the stage it met with an extremely cordial reception, and it is now enjoying an even greater vogue on the screen in New York.

Those who like him in 'Disraeli' and in 'The Green Goddess' will revel in his performance of the grand old sinner 'OLD ENGLISH'.

I recommend it without reservation to those who appreciate the better things in art and in life.

When Your Cough Hangs On, Mix This at Home

The best cough remedy that money could buy, can easily be mixed at home. It saves money and gives you the most reliable, quick-acting medicine you ever used. The way it takes hold of stubborn coughs and chest colds, giving immediate relief, is astonishing.

Any drug store can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle, and fill up with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. It's no trouble at all to mix, and when you once use it, you will never be without it. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children really like it.

Coin Lost Many Years Ago By Civil War Vet Given Oil City Woman

Pocket Piece Lost In Maryland 63 Or 67 Years Ago, Found By Farmer

Through Pension Bureau, Naval Academy Official Finds Loser's Sister

(International News Service)
OIL CITY, Pa., Dec. 18.—A pocket piece, which her soldier brother carried away from his Massachusetts home in 1861, and which lay for 63 or 67 years in the soil of Maryland, today is in the possession of Mrs. D. R. Merritt, of Oil City.

That briefly sums up an unusual story and again proves the truth of the old adage that "truth is stranger than fiction."

The copper coin, a little larger than a quarter, which was the property of Sergeant Jesse Prickett, Co. 3, 10th Massachusetts Volunteers brother of Mrs. Merritt, was found by a farmer near Annapolis, Maryland, turned over to the Naval Academy there and traced to the next of kin through the rolls of the pension bureau.

The pocket piece evidently served the same purpose as the identification disc—or in soldier parlance "dog tags"—of the World War. The coin bears the name, the company and the regiment of the owner.

Sergeant Prickett served through the entire war, taking part in many important engagements in that conflict. He died some 30 years ago.

Tracing Takes Place
The local residents were apprised of the finding of the pocket piece through a letter from W. E. Farrell, associate professor at the United States Naval Academy, at Annapolis, Md. He related how the coin was discovered by a farmer while digging near Annapolis. The farmer turned it over to a special guard at the Academy, realizing that it would be highly cherished by relatives of the soldier if they could be traced.

Officers at the Academy turned to the pension bureau at Washington, D. C., and there learned that the widow of the soldier was living in Massachusetts. Mrs. Prickett, who was the second wife of the soldier, believing that his sister, Mrs. Merritt, would treasure it more highly than she, advised the Naval Academy officer to send it on to Oil City, which he did. The coin is highly prized by the Merritt family, the fact that it lay so long in the soil of Maryland and was sent back from the point where it was found in such a strange way makes the pocket piece a keepsake worthwhile.

Seal Sale Booths Downtown Saturday

For the convenience of New Castle and Lawrence county people, Christmas tuberculosis seals will be on sale at booths in two downtown stores on Saturday morning, afternoon and evening, according to announcement coming this morning from Miss Sara Burckart, executive secretary of the Lawrence County Tuberculosis Society.

Saturday morning the booth in the New Castle Dry Goods store will be in charge of Miss Frances Long and Adelaide Dute, in the afternoon, by Misses Mary Katherine Jackson and Betty Davis; and in the evening by Misses Julia Jackson and Betty Johnson.

The Misses Dorothy Cain and Betty Fix will care for the seal booth at the Strouss-Hirschberg store on Saturday morning; Misses Agnes Keane and Helen Book, in the afternoon; and Misses Gene Book and Pauline Nelson in the evening.

These girls have donated their services.

CHRISTMAS STORIES SOUTH SIDE BRANCH

Eighty-two children, the largest number ever attending a branch library story hour, heard Miss Alice Joyce of the central library, tell stories of Christmas at the South Side branch, Wednesday evening. The children gathered at the South Side library, South Mill street at about 4 o'clock, and the hour with fairy, goblins and princes in storyland was most enjoyable.

Solomon's Methods Still Prove Good Law

(International News Service)
PARIS, Dec. 18.—Solomon had nothing on the old bewhiskered gamekeeper of a little village in the Indre-et-Loire.

Called in by a peasant woman, who volubly accused her neighbor of stealing two hens—the best layers of the lot—although she could not identify them, the grizzled old man scratched his head in bewilderment for a few seconds.

Then his face lit up. He shouted to the accused to loose the birds, which rushed flapping out into the yard. Clapping his hand and hooting as loud as possible, the gamekeeper drove them back into the coops. Allexcept two, which made off for the plaintiff's house.

Congratulating the old man on his astuteness, the magistrate decided that even a hen must know its own home and find the thief.

Statistics Outline Growth Of Movies

(International News Service)
LONDON, Dec. 18.—Impressive statistics regarding the growth of the movie industry were given by John Maxwell, president of one of Britain's foremost movie producing companies, at the company's annual meeting recently. He said that: There are about 55,000 movie houses in the world—20,000 in Canada and the United States, about 4,000 in Britain, and about 1,800 in Australia and New Zealand. About three and three quarter billion dollars are invested in the industry, of which total two billions are in the United States.

The world spends $175,000,000 a year on going to the movies. About 250,000,000 of the peoples of the world go to movies at least once every week.

State Police Make Plain Grove Arrest

State Policemen Henescheck and Richards, located at the Colonial hotel here made a fast trip to Plain Grove yesterday where they took a man named Herman Schreckengost into custody and charged him with disorderly conduct and drunkenness. He is in the county jail in default of $100 bail waiting a hearing before Alderman O. H. P. Green, Monday.

The State Police received a telegram call at 4378, the informant stating that a man was pounding on the door of the house.

They arrived soon and the man was found in a garage. He was intoxicated and brought to the county jail.

A movement has been started in Ireland to supply radios to farmers who are snowbound in winter.

Rich Gas Gusher Reported In Ohio

(International News Service)
TIFFIN, O., Dec. 18.—Gas from the Chaney farm gusher, south of here, today continued to rush into the mains of the Ohio Fuel Gas company at the rate of more than 1,750,000 cubic feet daily, according to officials of the company.

The gusher was turned into the company's lines yesterday when the gas issued forth under high pressure.

Ray C. Jones, Cleveland Oil operator and owner of the Chaney lease, today had begun operations toward bringing in another well in the same district, he announced.

German Classes Hold Yule Party

First And Second Year Groups At Senior High Share School Affair

PROGRAMS GIVEN IN NATIVE TONGUE

Appropriate to the yuletide season, a Christmas party was enjoyed by the students of the senior high school German department during their regular class periods on Wednesday. Both members of the first year and second year classes participated, together with several guests present on special invitation.

In the first year class, a discussion of German Christmas customs featured. The second year students' program, arranged entirely in German like the first, was more elaborate. Fred Specht presided over the latter.

The Program
The entire program of the second year group follows:

A series of poems was given in German by Alfred Stump and William Bender.

Talks on German Christmas customs—Earl Hildebrand, Donald Newman, William Grommes, Clara Houck and William Schuler.

German conversation arranged by Edith McKee and Anna Windish.

A discussion on German musicians, conducted by Victor Rice. Rice also played the following selections of German composers on his cello, with Miss Morsalda Marganti, another student accompanying:

"Die Meister Singer"—Wagner.

"Traumerei"—Schumann.

"Serenade"—Schubert.

"Menuet in G"—Beethoven.

Closing the program in both classes was a characteristic German Christmas lunch of cakes and candy. Miss Ruby Young was chairman of the committee in charge of the serving.

Special guests in attendance included Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools; Principal F. L. Orth; Assistant Principal Marjorie Rhodes, and Miss Mary J. Ruffner, who heads the German department.

Correct this sentence: "Take him in that room and question him," said the police captain, "But remember that even a suspect is entitled to every courtesy."

May-December Marriages Find Happiness

Despite Universal Belief in Failure, Many Men and Women of Vastly Different Ages Find Their Marriage Successful.

Dr. Silas R. Cornwith & Wife

Mr. & Mrs. Charles Andres

Gov. Morgan F. Larson and Bride

Sybil Buck

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Can men and women of vastly different ages find happiness in the short span of life that their union encompasses?

Time and time again this question is debated and the answer is invariably in the negative. And then one reads or hears about such a marriage that has turned out to be extremely successful and all theories and ideas on the subject have to be readjusted.

The belief humans have in their own powers is amazing. Women of advanced years imagine that their beauty is still compelling enough to hold a young man to their side. And elderly men believe that they are attractive enough to make a young woman, sometimes more than a generation their junior, happy and satisfied with her marital bargain. Yes, this is a strange world and the strange unions that constantly occur are among the strangest of human phenomena.

Henri Marchand, the famous artist, sat in court in Buffalo and listened to the testimony that described his seduction of the Indian girl who later murdered Marchand's wife. He didn't cut a very gallant figure and certainly looked his 53 years. And women spectators in the Buffalo court house were united in their sympathy for the bewildered little Indian in their condemnation of Marchand. Yet an eighteen-year-old girl, Lillian Cooper, has had sufficient faith in Marchand to marry him. The two are still honeymooning in up-State New York. Perhaps the young bride fell in love with his distinguished appearance or his mind. As yet, she has proffered no explanation.

About four years ago, newspapers recorded the marriage of Dr. Silas Rogers Cornwith, 73, to Viola Marie Alter, who was all of sixteen. The town of Patchogue, L. I., was stunned by the news. The bride was attended by her school chums, the bridegroom by his grandchildren. According to every theory and loud prophecy, the union should have terminated long ago. But we now learn that the strangely assorted couple have a baby son which proves exactly nothing or a great deal.

Despite the difference in years, friends are predicting success for the union of New Jersey's Governor, Morgan F. Larson, who is 48, with Miss Ada Schmidt, who is exactly 25 years of age. The strong community of interest between the pretty bride and the man who has known her ever since she was a little motherless immigrant girl befriended by his mother should do much to make the union a happy one. Ada became his mother's secretary after mother and son had financed the girl's education. After the death of Larson's wife some years ago, the friendship between the two became warmer and has had a story book conclusion. And everyone hopes that New Jersey's popular Governor and his charming young bride will "live happily ever after."

In Zrockton, Mass., a seventeen-year-old school girl, Sybil Buck, has just married John Horner, who is thirty-four years her superior. And out in Great Bend, Kansas, Charlie Andress, a mere child of 78, has just taken unto himself a wife in the person of twenty-six-year-old Virginia Pritchard. And the pair are honeymooning down in sunny Florida, where the Larsons are also visiting. A May and December union that attracted much attention some time ago was that of millionaire John Boyle, of Peabody, Mass., who is 67 and telephone operator, Gertrude Hines, aged 23, of Boston. And in society circles there is the marriage of Almira Rockefeller with Roy Jackson, who is thirty-two years his wife's senior. A mutual love of horses drew them together and although there was some family opposition to the match, this was overcome by the determination of the Rockefeller heiress to marry the man of her choice.

Bank Police Alarm Summons Officers

Holiday Shoppers Get Thrill As Police Speed Down Street In Cars

Wild rumors were abundant Wednesday afternoon and evening to the effect that one of the banks of the city had been held up and robbed by a group of robbers.

The rumor traveled far and wide throughout the city and as such stories go, grew in magnitude as the story spread. First rumor was to the effect that the bank in question had been held up. Finally there had been some one shot in the affair.

The fact on which the wild rumor was based was a test being made of the alarm system of the bank.

Within less than a minute after the alarm was sounded, two automobiles filled with officers armed with riot guns had arrived at the bank and had the entrance of the bank under cover of their guns.

This test was made without the knowledge of the officers making the run and they answered just as they would at any time that such a call is received.

LEAVE FOR POLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bazylinski and daughter Helen of the Wampum road left New York harbor on the steamer Bremen Tuesday for a voyage which will terminate in Poland, where the Bazylinskis will visit relatives and friends.

Brotherhood Holds Annual Meeting

The Brotherhood of the St. John's Lutheran church held their annual meeting and election of officers on Tuesday evening at the parsonage, 320 Winter avenue, with Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Stough as hosts.

The election of officers resulted in all officers being returned to their respective places: Emory Wolfe, president; S. Luther Gilbert, vice president; William Koehner, secretary; Joseph Beltrame, treasurer, and Henry Elise, financial secretary.

At the close of the business session, Rev. and Mrs. Stough delightfully entertained the group with a talk on their European trip the past summer, at the same time showing some lantern slides of their trip over the Alps and some views of Venice. After the European trip the hosts served a delicious lunch to the Brotherhood members.

Must Die For Son's Murder

(International News Service)
HAMILTON, O., Dec. 18.—Charles King, 39, convicted by a jury of the murder of his son, Robert, 14, today was under sentence of death in the electric chair.

Judge E. J. Kautz last night sentenced King to die in the Ohio State Penitentiary at Columbus on April 7 next.

The prisoner, a former barber, also was indicted for the killing of his wife, Mrs. Ethel King, and the couple's three other children.

What vegetable was once known as the "love apple?"

The tomato was formerly called love apple and was considered poi-sonous. It is now widely cultivated in all temperate regions and con-sidered one of the most wholesome and important garden vegetables.

Who were the Aztecs and where did they live?

The name Aztec is frequently used to designate all the ancient semi-civilized tribes of Nahuatl stock in central and southern Mexico, but properly applies only to a small group of seven cognate tribes occupying the Valley of Mexico and its immediate vicinity.

According to tradition, they had migrated to-gether from the north. The prin-cipal tribe fixed its capital at Te-nochtitlan, now the City of Mexico, and by wars of conquest gradually acquired dominion over nearly all the tribes of southern Mexico, thus building up the Mexican Empire.

which flourishes for perhaps two centuries, until overthrown by Cortes in 1521. Although the Aztecs possessed a high degree of culture, they were distinguished for their cruelty and the bloody character of their religious rites.

Recitation, If He But Knew—Rose Guarnieri.

Play, Christmas in Dreamland. Recitation, Night Before Christ-mas—Betty Mae McComb.

Music, Danube Waves—Orchestra.

The High School will present the following program Friday morning in chapel.

Christmas Song—School. Recitation—Leora Houston. Piano Duo—Eleanor Rodgers, Leora McCommon.

Recitation—Florence Jenkins. Cornet Duet—James Stevenson, Alex Brown. One Act Play, "The Economical Boomerang"—Juniors and Seniors. The cast: Mr. Alexander Dabbleton—Harold Connell. Mrs. Alexander Dabbleton—Lil-lian Patterson. Mr. Bird Plouer—Charles Masters. Mrs. Bird Plouer—Anne Stude-baker. Doctor—William McKee. Maggie—Elva Hohmann.

There is a mysterious air hang-ing above the numerous groups of boys and girls, scattered here and there, talking and laughing over the thoughts of the coming holidays. School will be dismissed on Friday, December 19, and will again re-sume Monday, December 29, 1930.

BASKETBALL Our teams will motor to Harris-ville on Tuesday evening, Decem-ber 23, to contest with their teams. Some good games are anticipated.

SICK LIST Edwin Foster is not yet able to return to school. Jack Sankey, Avonell Hohmann and Pauline Doby are unable to attend school on account of sick-ness. And another thing that adds to the immediate perplexities of life is the early necessity of renewing one's license and getting the license plates.—The Utica Observer-Dis-patch.

Deny Reports Of New Belgian Fog

Belgian Authorities Refute Reports New Haze Grips Part Of Nation

(International News Service) PARIS, Dec. 18.—Belgian municipalities terrified recently by a "poison fog" held responsible for 24 deaths refused reports coming from America today that another thick mist had settled over the previously affected sector, or that families in those localities were preparing to flee.

In telephonic conversation with International News Service, authorities of the Belgian cities and towns of Liege, Ensis, Fiemalle, and Brussels stated that the clearest weather prevailed with no one preparing to flee or evacuate in fear of further fog, as reported by other sources.

The one exception was Jemeppe, where it was stated "a slight haze" prevailed, but not one serious enough to cause any concern whatever.

Authorities investigating the recent disaster were unable definitely to establish a cause for the sudden deaths of man and beast, although officially the dense fog was blamed. However, noxious fumes from industrial plants were believed by some to have contributed to the fatalities.

EAST BROOK

GIRL RESERVES.

A group of 14 Girl Reserves of East Brook high school held a Christmas party at the local Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday evening. The evening was spent singing carols and playing games. The first recognition service was also held at this time. At a later hour a luncheon was served.

MISSIONARY MEETING. The ladies of the Home Missionary society of East Brook Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. James Harris December 11 with 14 members present. Mrs. Pollard led the business meeting and the day was spent quilting. Christmas gifts were exchanged among the members.

At noon a twelve dinner was served. Christmas decorations were carried out, an attractive miniature Christmas tree formed the centerpiece. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. C. G. Crooks, Mrs. O. R. Fink, Mrs. Clair Cook and Mrs. H. M. Kelley.

Special guests were Mrs. Hoone and Mrs. Baker of New Castle. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. O. M. Bilger of Walnut street, on January 14.

T. L. B. MEETING. The T. L. B. met at the home of Mrs. Herman Young Saturday. Twenty-one were present. The afternoon was spent in games. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

EAST BROOK NOTES. Mrs. O. R. Fink and daughter, Virginia, were guests at the home of Mrs. C. G. Crooks.

St. John's Church Elects Officers

At a meeting of the Sunday school teachers and officers of St. John's Lutheran church, held in the church this week, an election of officers was the feature of the meeting with Albert Treser being chosen Sunday school superintendent; Fred Schmidt, Emory Wolfe, S. H. Gilbert, assistants; William Gilbert, secretary; George Burkart, treasurer; William Gustafson, librarian; William Emery and Robert Gilbert, assistants; S. Luther Gilbert, supervisor of teachers; Ardy Ryhal, organist; Barbara Schulz, assistant; Margaret Harris, pianist, and Loretta Schmidt, assistant.

Primary Department Will Have Party

Members of the primary department of the Italian Methodist church will have their Christmas party in the church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. J. Ruggerio, Mrs. San Filippo and Miss Jennie Metta in charge.

Santa Claus will be there to make things merry for the little tots and he will distribute gifts after the program in which the pupils will take part.

Sunday evening at 7:30 the regular Christmas program will be held in the Italian Methodist church.

Poincare Shows Some Improvement

(International News Service) PARIS, Dec. 18.—A battle for life was slowly but surely being won today by Raymond Poincare of France as his physicians reported continued improvement after his collapse Saturday.

Immediate danger, barring unforeseen complications, was believed past.

The war-time president's physicians described his illness as "vascular spasms," which are paralytic manifestations affecting the normal functioning of the body tissues.

Italian M. E. Aid Christmas Program

The Ladies Aid Society of the Italian Methodist church enjoyed a Christmas party Wednesday afternoon in the church with a splendid attendance of the members and a Christmas spirit pervaded the atmosphere as the members taking part in the program gave their parts in a noble manner.

Mrs. John Ruggerio was in charge of the program. A solo by Mrs. Fusco was well received, as were the readings in Italian, presented by Mrs. Mary Marticardi and Mrs. M. Gizzi, which told the Christmas story in an auspicious way. Rev. John Ruggerio, pastor of the church brought a message of Christmas to the women.

Santa Claus made his appearance at the close of the program and amid much joviality there was a distribution of gifts after which the committee, headed by Mrs. J. Montozzi and Mrs. Casalini, served a delicious lunch.

Convict Loses His Wife And Fortune

Mother Of Late Wife Of Convict, Successful In Annulment Suit

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—A $1,000,000 estate, including valuable property in Johnstown, Pa., will not be shared in by Rubin Weller, convict. The marriage of Mrs. Ruth Cosgrove Weller, now dead, to the former ticket speculator now serving a ten-year term at Sing Sing for grand larceny, was ordered annulled yesterday by Supreme Court Justice Shinn.

Mrs. Laura Lewis, mother of Mrs. Weller, instituted the annulment suit, charging that her daughter was mentally unbalanced and married Weller at Port Chester, N. Y., in 1926 after a day's courtship. The girl's first husband, A. K. Cosgrove, wealthy Pennsylvania coal mine operator, had died two months before, leaving her an estate of more than $1,000,000.

WAR VALOR IS GIVEN REWARD

(International News Service) SOMERSET, Pa., Dec. 18.—Twelve years ago Walter B. Jones, company bugler for Company C, 110th Regiment, rounded up a group of stragglers during a terrific bombardment at the second battle of the Marne and led them through their endangered position to safety.

There were 18 stragglers. By virtue of Jones' courage, five of the men escaped injury.

Today, Walter B. Jones, now a local hardware dealer, was accorded recognition of his intrepid action when the Distinguished Service Cross was pinned on his breast here.

Pennsylvania's 1930 Crop Shows Decrease

Estimated Value Of 1930 Crop In State Reported $22,000,000 Less Than 1929

Valuation Quite High In Spite Of Drought, Slow Market And Low Prices

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Dec. 18.—Valued at $218,324,000, Pennsylvania's total 1930 crop yield was about $22,000,000 less than last year, but compares favorably with the total crop values of 1928—and a combination of drought, slow market and low prices made 1930 the worse of three successive lean years for farmers, it was disclosed here today by the revised report of the Federal-State crop reporting service.

Across this year was greater than in 1929, the report shows, but the yields were lower, except for oats and winter grains. Fruit crops, except peaches, were larger this year and with the exception of tobacco and hay, prices were lower. The 1930 corn crop was the lowest on record, totaling but 29,184,000 bushels as against 46,470,000 bushels in 1929. Winter wheat production was greater, however, being 25,110,000 bushels this year compared with 20,016,000 bushels last year and the oat crop jumped from 29,913,000 bushels in 1929 to 40,312,000 bushels this year.

Heavy decreases were shown in yield of potatoes, which dropped 2,500,000 bushels below the 1929 level; hay, which was 500,000 tons under the last year figure; and tobacco was off 11,400,000 pounds from 1929.

The apple crop this year was estimated at 9,774,000 bushels for the year, against 5,973,000 last year; peach production was set at 936,000 bushels compared with 1,157,000 bushels in 1929; grapes produced this year were about 18,000 tons, against 16,200 tons last year; and pears, 620,000 bushels in 1930 and 272,000 bushels last year.

Horton Returns To Scout Duties

Past Fifteen Days Spent In Training At Philadelphia Naval Yard

Back after a period of 15 days' training at the Philadelphia ship yards of the U. S. Navy, Chief Scout Executive Herbert G. Horton this morning resumed his duties at scout headquarters here. Scout Commissioner Ralph F. Davis was acting executive during Mr. Horton's absence.

The executive is now a junior lieutenant in the navy, but is preparing himself for a regular lieutenant's commission. The full commission equals the rank of captain in the army. Training periods come annually.

Executive Horton returned today from New York where he had gone to visit a brother following the completion of his navy service. At Philadelphia he was assigned to duty on destroyers.

City Engineer Praises Workmen

City Engineer Frank Miller today commended the work which is being performed by the men from the ranks of the unemployed in the Narrows and Meyer avenue. "The work is going along very good in both places and the men are doing a good job," said Miller.

Approximately 80 men reported again today on each job and a new squad will report Monday. The men who worked the first three days will be paid Friday afternoon at the city treasury, city hall and the men who work the last three days of this week will receive their pay Tuesday.

We can't but wonder what would have happened had Judge Lindsey "called" Bishop Cannon.—The Columbia (S. C.) State.

Marathon Champ Gets Trophy

County Schools Close Down For Christmas Time

However There Will Be No Uniform Vacation, Each District Fixing Time

There will be no uniform Christmas vacation in the schools of Lawrence county, according to an announcement at the office of County Superintendent John C. Syling this morning. Each of the various districts determines when the vacation is to begin and when it will end. In some districts the vacation will extend from Friday of this week, until the Monday following Christmas, while in other districts vacation will extend from Friday until the Monday following New Years. In a few districts there will be less than a week, and in others two weeks.

There has been very little sickness in county schools since the beginning of the present term and it has not been necessary to close down any of them on this account. With the exception of institute weeks schools have been in continuous session since the opening.

Guild To Present Benefit Show In City In January

Benefit For Unemployed To Be Given On January 15 And 16

Rehearsals will start Friday evening for the Civic Theatre Guild presentation of "Is Zat So" according to a statement of Arthur Brown, president of the Guild today. The play will be presented in the Senior High School auditorium on the nights of January 15 and 16, and the net proceeds will be turned over to the Mayor's Committee on Unemployment.

"Is Zat So" is a comedy which had a long run on Broadway several years ago and has been used successfully in stock. A splendid cast is being assembled for the play here with several successes back of it. The Guild is confident of a workmanlike production in the coming show.

Junior Department Christmas Program

The junior department of the Highland U. P. church will have a white gift service Sunday morning at the Sabbath school hour in which each class of the department will take a part.

The room is being especially decorated for the occasion and the classes will each present their gift in a unique way.

The various departments of the Sabbath school are holding separate programs in their class rooms.

The Baldwin Bible class is planning a series of Christmas stories to be given by different members of the class.

Large Crowd At Police Court For Cochran Hearing

Expected Thrills Fail To Materialize At Police Court Session

Courtroom of police headquarters was crowded this morning when Frank Cochran, colored, and his brother-in-law Mitchell Dantzier, appeared before Mayor William H. Gillespie with their counsel, Attorney Orville Brown, to answer to the charge of resisting an officer and interfering with an officer, respectively as a result of an episode occurring Tuesday night.

The proceedings, as a result of a conference held previously, were devoid of the anticipated features that resulted in the big crowd. Cochran was informed that the charge against him was that of resisting Officer H. R. Showalter, following his arrest when caught in company with a white woman under conditions, which the police say, warranted his arrest and his attorney entered a plea of guilty. The mayor then assessed him a fine of $25 with the alternative of twenty days in the county jail.

Dantzier in turn was informed that he was charged with interfering with an officer in the performance of his duty, and he also entered a plea of guilty through his counsel. He was then assessed a fine of $15 with the alternative of ten days in the county jail.

Both paid their fines. There was no testimony offered. The throng in the office had its morbid curiosity satisfied to some extent when the woman in the case, Alma Grove, who had been arrested last night, was brought before the mayor and informed that she was charged with suspicion. Asked if she had anything to say, she declined to speak and was assessed a fine of $10 with the alternative of ten days. She also paid.

Claims His Farm Is Damaged By Improving Road

A. O. Wilson Presents His Case Before Viewers At Court House Today

Hearing is being held before a board of viewers at the court house today on a claim of A. O. Wilson for damages as a result of the improvement of the Volant road. Wilson has a farm of 91 acres at what is known as Wilson's hill a short distance south of Volant. In building the road a cut was made, which he claims was responsible for springs in his pasture lands drying up. He told the viewers that before the improvement he estimated the value of his farm at $8,000, and since the road was built, at $4,000. Witnesses for Wilson and for the county placed various estimates of the amount of damage some near the amount he claimed and others considerably lower. Upon the completion of the hearing the viewers will make an estimate of the damages they are willing to allow. The county has a number of damage claims growing out of the improvement of the Volant road.

Portion Of Rails Have Been Removed

City Engineer Frank Miller stated today that the tracks of the Pittsburgh, Harmony, Butler and New Castle Railway company along the right of way between East Washington street and Cunningham avenue have been removed. The city contemplates a sewer along the right of way and the project may be put through by men from the ranks of the unemployed this winter.

Laurel Avenue Business Place Scene Of Robbery

Shoemaker Tools And Other Articles Are Taken During The Night

Police officers answered a call to the place of business of Louis Dillio, 105 Laurel avenue, this morning to investigate the robbery reported as having taken place during the night.

The officers found that the place which is a shoemakers repair shop, had been entered by a rear window, which had not been securely locked. The missing articles are a razor, shoemakers tools, pliers, four awls, four shoemakers knives, a large piece of leather, half dozen pairs rubber heels and fifty cents taken from the cash register.

Divorce Is Granted Mrs. Sadie L. Davis

Sadie J. Davis was granted a divorce from John W. Davis, in a decree handed down by Judge Hildebrand this morning, on the grounds of desertion. The couple were married in 1924 and lived together until 1928, when differences arose over financial matters. It is claimed that Davis wanted his wife to mortgage property which she owned, in order that he might use the money in improving property which she owned. This she refused to do and a separation was the result.

Ejectment Action To Secure Property

The Universal Sales Company has filed an action in ejectment at the prothonotary's office against John and Rosalia Testa, to secure possession of a strip of land in the third ward, bounded on the west by Vine street. The land was acquired by the plaintiff from William J. Critchlow who had erected a fence on the south line. It is claimed that the defendants in this case removed the fence and placed it on the north line. The strip over which there is a dispute is about ten feet wide.

Will Not Tolerate Suspicious Characters

Indications are that Mayor William H. Gillespie will issue orders today or Friday to Police Chief Horner to have policemen take into custody all persons whom they believe to be "suspicious" in an effort to checkmate any flare of crime in this city. In some cities persons of ill-repute are being forced from town and this city will not welcome them.

Radio Director of Third Naval District

Lieut. Com. W. D. Taylor is new radio director in the Third Naval District, centering around New York, which has more maritime communications than any other district in world. He is shown (center) with his retiring predecessor (left), Com. C. R. Clark and (right) Lieut. W. G. H. Finch, chief engineer of Hearst Radio Service, and radio executive officer in the district.

Planes Tangle Propellers at Airport

Luckily for the occupants of these two airplanes no one was killed when they collided head on at Roosevelt Field, L. I. The Eaglerock biplane, piloted by Bert Moore, crashed into the Challenger plane of Eddie Leiberwitz and Winifred Zinner when Moore attempted to land. All three persons were removed to the hospital.

Anti-French Demonstration

The Reds attempted to hold a meeting at the French consul's office, New York City, but were driven away by the police.

Secretary's Secrets

Kitty Carr, secretary to Judge Brodsky (with counsel Nathan Gluckman), is leaving court after being questioned regarding Brodsky's financial activities while on the bench. Another disclosure brought to light during the investigation of New York City court.

THREE LITTLE HOOVERS COME TO ENLIVEN WHITE HOUSE AS DID OTHERS BEFORE THEM

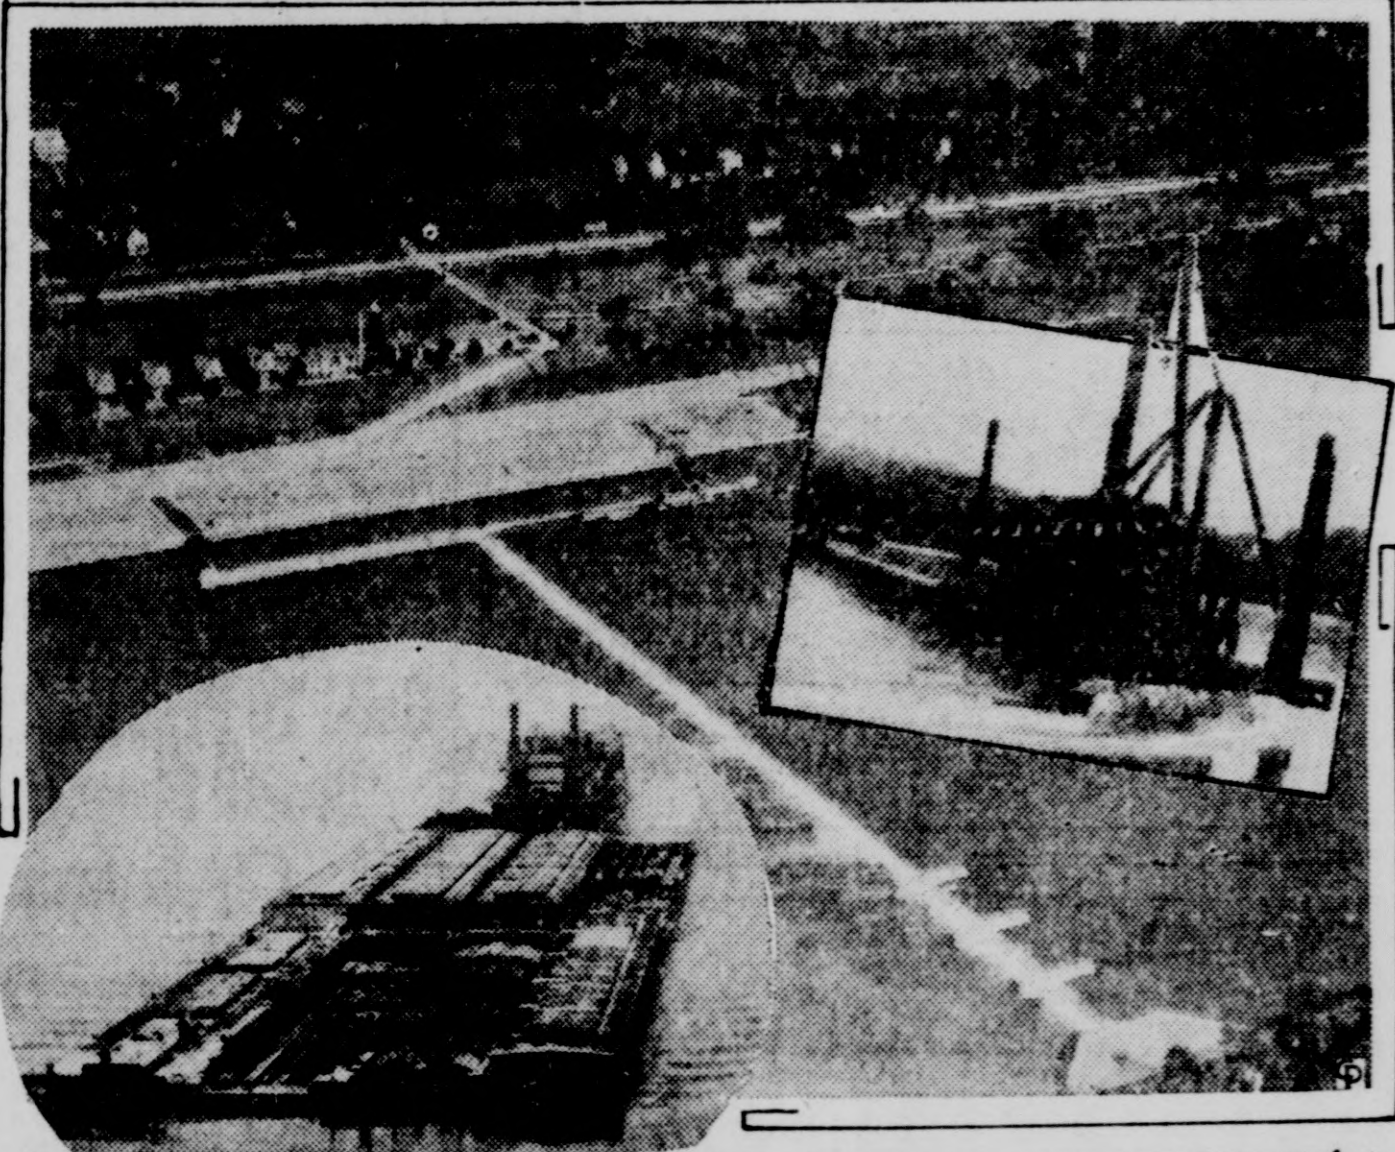

Peggy Ann, Joan and Herbert III now shown with their Grandmother Hoover (3), join the band of "White House children" who have romped through its stately rooms in other years. Photos above are of other family groups whose tenancy in the house on Pennsylvania avenue many Washingtonians still recall. Photos are of (1) President Lincoln with his youngest son, Tad, and inset of Willie, who was two years older; (2) President Wilson with the child of his daughter, Mrs. Jessie Wilson Sayre, who used to visit the White House; (4) President Roosevelt with his wife and family, and (5) Helen and Howard Taft. If the walls could speak they would tell of many another gay Christmas festival enlivened by childish voices when the little Herbert and his two sisters gather around their tree in the executive mansion.

CANALIZATION ROUTS OHIO RIVER'S LOW WATER

U. S. army engineers, as they look back on the record-breaking drought, are jubilant over the success of the Ohio river canalization project which has kept a minimum of nine feet of water in the river. Although hundreds of tributaries have dried up, the Ohio has been maintained at a boating stage all year with traffic moving every day. There are 53 locks and dams between Pittsburgh and Cairo, Ill. Photos of typical river scenes, above, show a steel company boat towing eight steel barges (several trainloads of freight); dam No. 37, at Fernbank, O., and a maneuver boat lowering the wickets of a movable dam. The entire project took half a century to complete.

Diplomat's Wife Smiles At Washington Showers

Frau Kiep, wife of Herr O. C. Kiep, counselor of the German Embassy in Washington, D. C., lives up to her reputation for smartness. She is shown in her raincoat of bright red rubberized silk, shiny black rubber boots reaching to the knees, black felt knockabout hat and red scarf.

Society Aids Salvation Army

FIRM BOUGHT TO GET STARS

These three screen beauties really are very important young persons. They are the reason that Radio-Keith-Orpheum purchased Pathe for $5,000,000. The Pathe company has contracts controlling the three money-making young women. Ann Harding is at top, Constance Bennett, lower left, and Helen Twelvetees, lower right. Their combined box office power is so great that RKO is said to have borrowed the money to put over the transaction, rather than to take a chance on losing the services of the trio.

Bank Robbery Recalls Legend

Monument Marks Spot, Where Peddler Was Murdered And Robbed,
Years Ago

(International News Service)

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Dec. 18.—Robbery of the First National Bank of Girardville recently has recalled to old residents of this section an ancient Schuylkill county legend, linking two crimes over the span of a century and bringing to light again what is called "Brandonsville's only claim to fame."

The legend was recalled when the automobile used by the bank bandits was found abandoned near Peddler's Grove.

Peddler's Grove got its name from the century old crime.

According to the tale, it was more than 100 years ago when a peddler stopped for the night at the Mansion House at Mahanoy City. At the counter, he displayed some gold pieces. He left the hostelry next day, and never returned.

That evening, however, his horse came trotting back to the Mansion House. The peddler, as was customary in those days, was well known over a wide section. Fears for his safety grew and a hunt was started for him.

After prolonged search, his body was found on a deserted road. He had been shot in the back and his clothing stripped of the gold he inauspiciously displayed.

The itinerant merchant was buried at Brandonsville. Several years ago the people of Jackson erected a monument to mark the spot.

Sense Of Humor Held Detrimental

(International News Service)

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Dec. 18.—A sense of humor, substituted for a sense of humor, reflected in the flippancy attitude toward things formerly considered substantial, is menacing the moral and spiritual life of the nation, Dr. Herbert F. Randolph, pastor of the Central M. E. church, declared in an address to the Y. M. C. A. here.

"The art of substitution has never before been carried to such a high pitch," Dr. Randolph declared. "People are substituting credit for cash, gambling for honest work, license for liberty and companionate marriage for wedlock."

Dr. Thos. Francis Slowly Recovering

The many friends of Dr. Thomas Francis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Francis of Craig street, this city, who has been ill for several weeks in the Rockefeller hospital of New York City will be pleased to learn that he is reported to be improving. Although his progress is slow, his complete recovery is anticipated.

Dr. Francis is a resident of the Rockefeller hospital and of the Institute and Medical Research.

Butler, Pa., Dec. 18.—"Shoot to kill" orders were given to Butler patrolmen today by Chief of Police George W. Kelly as he placed officers in positions that would give oversight of the several banking institutions of the city. All leaves of absence were canceled by Chief Kelly as a precautionary measure in giving the city protection against possible visits of bandits who are operating in western Pennsylvania.

Butler has not had a real holdup since the visit of Irene Schroeder and W. Glenn Dague, convicted of the murder of Corporal Brady Paul of the highway patrol near New Castle last December 27.

Boy Scout News

FIRST CHRISTIAN TROOP

Members of troop 15 held an overnight hike at Scout Camp John M. Phillips on Saturday and Sunday. This hike was held to put up feeding stations for the birds, and to pass tests. Signaling was the featured test with the boys dividing into two groups and sending different messages to each other. This proved to be very interesting. Other tests passed were cooking, fire-building, compass and observations.

Games were played on Saturday evening in which "Capture the Flag" seemed to be the most interesting game. Wrestling proved to be good sport to form muscles and quickness. Ralph Montgomery was the winner.

Pennsy Railroad Will Place Order For Lot Of Steel

Total Order Amounting To $15,000,000 Will Be Given By Pennsy
Railroad

STEEL MILLS SEE BETTER BUSINESS

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 18.—With the announcement of the Pennsylvania Railroad that it will immediately ask bids on rails and attachments for 1931 delivery, a total order amounting to $15,000,000, steel mills in the Pittsburgh district today were preparing for increased orders beginning the first of the year.

Approximately 200,000 tons of heavy steel rails and a large tonnage of attachments will be needed to fill the order, which is a part of extensive improvements the company is carrying out involving the replacement of light rails with heavy 130 pound-to-the-yard rails.
E. W. Smith, Vice President of the company, pointed out that one-third of the order will probably be filled with rails turned out of Pittsburgh and district mills. Last year, when the company placed a similar order, rails were laid with the help of large labor gangs, often at the rate of a mile a day, in January and the winter months. Frequently, rails rolled one day in Pittsburgh mills were laid the following day.
At current prices the rails ordered by the Pennsylvania will total more than $8,500,000 while attachments for laying the rails will bring the expenditures to more than $15,000,- 000.

With Richards
Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations
Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Along with radios, automobiles, ham and cabbage and Ames in Andy, football banquets have become an annual institution in this country.
It's the safety valve of youthful enthusiasm when the bottled up steam of the three months past can be worked out on food. And last night the Union Township high school football team got its annual chance.

It's the big night of the football season, when the team is set apart from the ordinary guests and half a dozen speakers toss language about, telling the world just how good the team has been. And that thing happened last night.

A real banquet it was, with most of the township present, and everybody scoring with a plate full of food large enough to keep a small family for a while. A big night for the coach, David Morgan Boyd, for the showing of the team this year was a triumph for him.

The team runs the gamut in size.
There's one lad, the full back, Augostine, who is about three inches over six feet and weighs 190, and a half back who might be five feet five on a soap box and weighs about 102½.

It used to be said that if you sat long enough in a Paris curb cafe, you would meet anybody you cared to see. Just now the same thing applies to the post office lobby. From early morning until way late the lobby is filled with customers, and it does look as though the mail man was in for an interesting time.

If any of the boys in Washington want to know whether our post office is adequate, let him drop in any time. The lobby is too small to hold the crowd properly, and the working space for the force is too small to permit proper movement.

'Nuther vacation for the school youngsters. Friday marks the last day of the week, and of the year.
When they go back to school little old 1931 will be here.

Some soup records are being topped daily up at the Jameson Memorial hospital. This morning they turned out 167 gallons of soup, which is enough to feed 1350 people. Since the project was first started they have turned out 1158 gallons of nourishing soup, all of it distributed thru the mayor's committee, the Salvation Army and the Rescue Mission.

Picture 1158 gallons of soup if you can. Enough there to provide an artificial lake for the movies, or float a ship.

Bomb Explosion Occurs In Chicago

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—Dozens of families were shaken from their beds early today by a black powder bomb which exploded at the plant of the General Outdoor Advertising company, causing damage estimated at $5,000.

No persons were injured.
The bomb was planted on the outside of the building and tore a hole in the base of the structure. Windows in shops, stores and residences for a block around were shattered by the explosion.
A similar bombing occurred at the plant one year ago.

Gordon Named To Head American Game Association

Nationally Known Conservation Director Of Izaak Walton League Honored

SETH GORDON
NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—The board of directors of the American Game Protective Association announced today that Seth Gordon, nationally known conservation director of the Izaak Walton League of America, has accepted the presidency of their association and will assume his new duties on January 1st.

Mr. Gordon succeeds the late Carlos Avery, who died suddenly on October 5th and is considered by the board to be exceptionally fitted to carry on and enlarge the far-sighted game conservation program developed by the association under Mr.
Avery.

Mr. Gordon is known throughout the country for his work in conservation, having given 20 years to the fostering of interest and legislation in behalf of game and wild life conservation, first in charge of the game conservation work of Pennsylvania for a number of years, and later as conservation director of the Izaak Walton League.

Mr. Gordon's work in Pennsylvania was largely responsible for the shaping of the broad policies which have made Pennsylvania a model for other states in conservation matters. He had a leading part in the establishment of a state-wide system of refuges and public hunting grounds, development of an effective predatory animal control system, stocking of game in large quantities, intensive winter game feeding and sensible but strict enforcement of the game laws.
In the past four and a half years he has had a leading part in the development and execution of the conservation program of the Izaak Walton League.

34. George Rogers Clark—The "Willing"

IN PREPARATION FOR HIS SURPRISE ATTACK ON VINCENNES CLARK ARMED A LARGE BATEAU WHICH HE NAMED THE "WILLING". ALL THE ARTILLERY AND STORES OF THE EXPEDITION WERE LOADED ON THE BATEAU, SO THAT THE LAND COLUMN WOULD NOT BE ENCUMBERED WITH BAGGAGE.

(Copyright, 1930, by J. Carroll Mansfield)

THE "WILLING", MANNED BY 40 SOLDIERS UNDER LIEUT. ROGERS, SAILED FOR THE OHIO ON FEBRUARY 4, 1779. ROGERS' ORDERS WERE TO ASCEND THE WABASH TO A POINT 30 MILES BELOW VINCENNES, WHERE HE WAS TO AWAIT FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS FROM COLONEL CLARK.

THE NEXT MORNING KASKASKIA WAS ALL ABUSTLE AS CLARK'S MEN MADE READY TO DEPART. HAVING BEEN INFORMED OF THE OBJECT OF THE EXPEDITION, THE TOWNSPEOPLE HEARTILY GAVE THEIR SUPPORT AND SUPPLIED THE SOLDIERS WITH FOOD AND WARM CLOTHING.

BEFORE SETTING OUT, CLARK WROTE TO GOVERNOR HENRY OF VIRGINIA. "I KNOW THE CASE IS DESPERATE, BUT WE MUST EITHER QUIT THE COUNTRY OR ATTACK MR. HAMILTON. PERHAPS WE MAY BE FORTUNATE. ... IF WE FAIL, THIS COUNTRY [THE NORTHWEST] AS WELL AS KENTUCKY, I BELIEVE, IS LOST."

Fifty-Five Stockings Or More Will Be Hung At Margaret Henry Home

If every boy and girl of the Margaret L. Henry children's home hangs his left stocking around the fire place there will be exactly 55 stockings for old Santa to fill. If each boy and girl hangs up both his right and left stockings up at the fire-place there will be more than 55 stockings of course and old Santa will deserve a pat on the back!

It is superfluous to say that the children are anxiously awaiting the coming of Christmas, that the youngsters' eyes are sparkling in anticipation of the candy, dolls, and games that Santa will bring, and that they have all decided over and over again just what they would like most to receive.

There will be a large tree and it will be profusely decorated with tinsel and lights and do-dads.

And there may be a little Christmas program at about 7 o'clock Christmas eve, to which everyone is invited.

But best of all—Santa is scheduled to arrive in person at 10 o'clock on Christmas eve! He will not just go about his work quietly as he does some places. Instead he will call the children from their beds and personally present the gifts to each and every good boy and girl.

The children will be sent off to their little beds several hours before joyful old Santa arrives—but it would be impossible for even Miss Henry herself to persuade them to go to sleep! They are wide awake in order to hear the sound of the reindeer hoofs on the roof.

When the clock strikes ten they will all run downstairs in their P. J.'s and the fun begins.

Several of the Home children have written notes to Santa and others have half a notion to call him on the telephone one of these days. Santa has a telephone, you know. Or perhaps you didn't know. This one is listed under the name of William J. Wray, 130 Winterville avenue and is—5826.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

Best Toys Home Made Says Expert

Wee Tots Like To Play With Utensils Of Kitchen

By GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
Head Division Parental Education, Cleveland College, Western Reserve University.

In any home the child, just beginning to creep, finds his most attractive toys in the kitchen. The pots and pans and lids have no equal in attractiveness. The child can make noise with them, pile them up and turn them into all sorts of combinations. He also can put smaller things into them and dump smaller things from one container to another. Such toys cost nothing, and they easily can be thrown into boiling water to be sterilized. You cannot buy better toys for the baby under three or four.

Fasten a string to a pan that has a handle, and the child will delight to drag the thing about. Almost every home has spoons. Put a good number of them on a string for the baby, and have plenty of wrapping cord and rope saved from packages, where he can tie a knot he will fasten toys together in his own crude way. A few sticks or pieces of boards tied end to end, make for a toddler a very attractive train.

Coffee cans, oatmeal boxes, shoe boxes, wooden boxes, large and small; all sorts of containers which are not dangerous to the child, prove to be good toys. As the child grows older he can make a great variety of toys from such things. A coping saw you can get him at very little cost, and a vise which can be fastened to the kitchen table.

Either make your tools available or get him tools which he can use. He can use a saw at four or five, a gimlet, plane, and even a brace and bit. Don't get him cheap tools. Get good ones, and very few if necessary, so that he can really make things. Then give him the opportunity to go ahead.

When provisions are brought home, there are many packages, such as soap and cereals and canned goods. Put them on the kitchen table and let the toddler play with them. You will not need to show him what to do. He will invent. Then he will get real education.

Never throw away a magazine. The little child of one or two likes to look at pictures. At the age of three or four he likes to cut out pictures and paste them into a scrap book or on a cardboard. At this age the child should have blunt-nosed scissors of his own. He should have some paste. You can make it out of flour and water.

Put away the plain wrapping paper which comes on packages, for your child to draw and scribble on. For a few cents you can buy for him large sheets of newspaper paper. Give him colored crayons.

A wooden pencil is dangerous for the child under four or five. When he first uses such a pencil show him how to carry it with safety. If you have no low table for him, put a newspaper or magazine on the floor and let him draw and write there.

Let the toddler baby have a pail or two, in which to carry blocks and other things about the house. When he can be out-of-doors give him the fire shovel and a hoe, to dig and shovel snow or sand or dirt.

As early as two or three the child can learn to drive a nail into soft wood. Let him have soft boards or boxes, and let him pound to his heart's content.

Don't spend much on playthings. Home-made toys which the child finds in the simple things all about him, are the best toys in the world.

A singing teacher has been forbidden the practice of his trade in a residential section of a city. The city's hard luck is that the same principle cannot be applied to some pupils.—The New London Day.

Bo Broadway by JOSEPH VAN RAALTE

By Central Press

NEW YORK, Dec.—Eight years ago the Four Marx Brothers invaded London and were a flop. The gang in Thames Town didn't get them at all. An audience at the Palace Theatre gave the boys the Rawsby, even carrying their contempt to the point of pitching pennies at Harpo, engaged in his specialty.

Now they're going back—and it'll be different this time. Their movie version of "Animal Crackers" is one of the greatest cinema hits of the year, over there.

When offers were cabled for their appearance in London Groucho sent word that if the British are using anything but paper money this season, they couldn't accept the offer.

London cabled back that only paper money would be thrown at them, and the only one who would do the throwing would be the London producer.

The Boys are weighing anchor Christmas Eve.

SOLVED.
Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., says that the Prevailing Unpleasantness is due to the fact that "we have lost our faith."

Now that that's settled, we can all begin again where we left off.

GRAND ILLUSION.

Ridgely Hunt and George Hunt have compiled certain purple passages from the temperance literature of the last sixty years, which has been done into book form by Coward-McCann.

The following excerpt, captioned "Oh, Yeah!" is culled from a speech by William Jennings Bryan in Columbus, Ohio, in 1918: "Ten years from now hundreds of thousands of men who voted against us and struggled to keep the saloon will go down on their knees and thank God they were overwhelmed at the ballot box and this temptation far removed from them."

SLIGHTLY DIFFERENT
Newman Levy, the barrister, wrote a sketch produced at a recent benefit for the Author's League. The court was depicted as censoring "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which had offended public morals. In one scene, Little Eva, played by Gladys Erskine, told Uncle Tom, played by Charlie Halton, that she would meet him again in heaven.

"Strike it out," cried the Judge. "I won't have a young girl making dates to meet an old man who is not her husband."

And when Simon Legree asked: "Uncle Tom, don't I own you, body and soul?" the Judge again interposed.

"I won't have any talk about the body, before young people," he said. And the question was modified to: "Uncle Tom, are you not in my employ?"

CHAPIN PASSES.

Charlie Chapin, gifted but morally warped genius of New York's journalistic world, died in Sing Sing the other day. Twelve years ago he murdered his wife. When he gave himself up to the police after the crime he told them, with some show of pride: "I am known as the Simon Legree of Park Row."

It was Chapin who gave Irv. Cobb his first newspaper job in New York, when that great reporter was a raw recruit from Kentucky. Cobb never forgot and in the years of Chapin's imprisonment was kind to him in many ways.

Very few of the many capable reporters he developed cared much for the old man, personally. Naturally, they admired his ability as an editor; but past that, there wasn't much coil in which affection might take root.

In the later years of his career, fate carried him across many unlovely thresholds. Then came retribution; and with that shadow upon him, he murdered his wife. "Nellie" was about the only human being left on earth who believed in him. There was a side to his soul she had never glimpsed; and when the day dawned in which she would have learned the truth, Charlie Chapin shot her to death as she slept.

It wasn't "Nellie" that he killed. It was all that remained of his conscience.

PHILOSOPHY: "The business depression has been under way for about 17 months. It has been a very trying period." —The revered Wall Street Journal.

ILLUSTRIOUS LINES: "What was filthy in Caesar's time is filthy in Jimmy Walker's time." —Producer William A. Brady.

Union High Football Team Tendered Dinner, County League Champs

Close To 300 Attend Banquet At Union High School In Tribute To Great Team

Interesting Program Is Presented—Richards Makes Address Of Occasion

Thirty-three young huskies, members of the Union High School football team, County League champions, for the season of 1930, were the honored guests last evening at a most enjoyable banquet tendered them in the gymnasium of the Union School building.

Close to three-hundred persons, parents, relatives, friends, sweethearts, and fans were in attendance. The crowd far exceeded the expectations of the committee in charge of the dinner. They were all there to pay homage to a great Union High grid machine, and to Coach David Morgan Boyd. Union won the Class B title, and the citizens of the township were there to see that the boys got their "due."

Big Happy Family
It was like one big happy family that gathered around the festive boards, and partook of a delicious meal, served by a committee entirely of men. They are boosters for Union High, and what boosters. They are real, and furthermore they can cook, and how. The dinner was complete even to the ice cream and cake and all the coffee you could drink.

Program Presented
The banquet got under way at 6:30 o'clock with Rev. Wilbur E. Flannery, offering the invocation. Supervising Principal R. F. Conway, filled the chair as toastmaster. With the meal over about one hour after the gathering sat down, Toastmaster Conway called on A. L. Kissinger, a noted reader and he delighted the crowd with a few well given readings. Next, Miss Dorothy McCarty, appeared in a tap-dance, with Harold Moore at the piano, the number being "Papers." It was well received.

Hon. Bart Richards of the New Castle News, member of the Pennsylvania State Legislative body, was introduced as the principal speaker of the evening. Richards gave his customary fine talk, interspersed with just enough humor to keep the crowd in peals of laughter.

Captain Joe Augustyn, was the next speaker, and thanked the team for their cooperation, and expressed his hope that the team would do even better next year.

Charles P. Walther, News sport writer, was called on, and gave a nonsensical few moments, paying tribute to a great team and to a great coach.

Coach Boyd Speaks
Coach Boyd was called upon, and after reviewing the season very briefly, and thanking the boys for their work, presented each member of the team with a photograph of the team, made especially by the Boosters or Banquet committee. Those receiving pictures were: Captain Joe "Slim" Augustyn, Joe Jaworski, John Severa, Casimer Zarumba, Rocco Monico, "Red" Ammons, Casimer Mateja, "Bob" Stockman, Don Latimer, Don Lannigan, Lou Dec, Walter Snizek, Joe Todd, Woodrow Endres, Ralph Phillips, Joe Davis, James Denny, Cecil McCarty, Andy Eve, manager of the team, Walter Hughes, Edward Gorgacz, Louis Augustyn, George Fox, Lyle Kiker, "Dink" Campbell, Frank Pietrowitz, John Favorito, Henry Eonar, Jack Stockman, John Crifra, Henry Schuler, John Jones, and H. G. Smythe.

Boyd said that letters would be given the players at a later date at a chapel exercise. The coach made a fine speech, he had it well prepared. He expressed a lot of enthusiasm for next year and wants another winning combination, and another championship. The outlook is good.

H. J. Colton, principal of Bessemer High School, followed Boyd and was the final speaker. Colton thanked the school for the honor of being present, and said that Union did have a fine football team, and that they liked Bessemer fair and square.

The banquet as said before was made possible by a fine group of men, boosters of the team and very good cooks, they were: Waiters—John Turek, J. D. Pattison, S. A. White, Bacon, Maurice Cox, H. W. Sontum, Ed King, J. E. Davis, Al Rech, Jerry Morrison and William Rech. Kitchen Help—Earl Ammons, H. Rogers, Ed Foster, Charles Bentley, Ed Donnelly, F. Jones, N. S. Annie, Walter Hammond, H. L. Mayberry, Walter Snyder and J. W. Louer, coffee man. No meal was ever served finer than the one served last night.

Guest List
The guest list last night included the following—Hon. Bart Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur E. Flannery, Principal Harold J. Colton, Charles "Bugs" Walther, Coach David Morgan Boyd, Eleanor Heckart, Jane Davis, Ann Raymond, Lenora Bates, Mildred Gilch, Stella Mateja, Virginia Wallace, Mary Tabish, Flora Robinson, Dorothy McCarty, Virginia Rodgers, Betty Jean Stockman, Marjorie Allen, Ruth Fox, Ralph Fox, Mrs. R. Reynolds, Altha Reynolds, Harold Moore, Oliver Smith, Mrs. J. E. Davis, Inez E. Stern.

It was a fine outpouring of the citizens of Union township and showed to what extent the football team at Union is backed, not only by the student body, but by the parents and friends as well. Union is to be congratulated on the spirit shown last night. It was a great banquet and will live long in the memory of those present.

Wampum Merchants Win From Marcellas

Boone Stars As Wampum Quintet Captures Second Straight Victory

WAMPUM, Dec. 18.—Wampum Merchants basketball team captured its second straight victory on Tuesday night here, when the Merchants defeated the Marcella basketball five of New Castle by a 23-17 score.

The Wampum boys secured a lead at the start and were never behind. The score at the half was 12-5. The Marcellas scored 12 points to 11 for the Wampumites in the second half. Boone was the star performer for the winners with 20 marks and J. Ferrucci playing a good game at guard for the Merchants. DiThomas and Y. Marcella were the best for the losers.

In the preliminary contest the Wampum Tigers triumphed over the Ellwood City Stars 23-29. On Friday night the Wampum Merchants met the Youngstown stars at the Wampum Opera House floor. The merchants would like to schedule games with any fast independent teams in the city, county, or nearby towns. Games can be secured by writing to Walter Gafney Box 423, Wampum, Pa., or by calling 59 and asking for Tom.

Church Teams Play Games Friday Night

Four games are scheduled among the Church Basketball league, Friday night. The schedule: A division, First M. E. vs Wesley M. E. and Temple Israel vs Third U. P. vs Terrians; B division, Third U. P. vs First Christians and Central Christians vs Sacred Hearts vs St. Johns Lutherans.

CRIMSON GRIDDER HOCKEY PLAYER

Barry Wood, Harvard's clever football quarterback, appears in new togs as he comes out for practice with the Crimson hockey team. He is a candidate for center on the Harvard puck chasing sextet. Here he is ready for start of play.

Wood May Be First Harvard 10-H Man

BARRY WOOD

By JOSEPH S. WARD
Central Press Writer.
BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 18.—A college man may be a wonder on the football field, the baseball diamond, hockey rink or tennis court, but when this same athlete makes the Phi Beta Kappa as a junior, he has achieved campus greatness that amazes.

But amazing accomplishments are nothing new for William Barry Wood, Jr., 20, this year's star quarterback, next year's captain, three-letter man in major sports at Harvard, who was one of the eight juniors selected to the Harvard chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa.

Since back in 1928 when the loose-jointed Milton, Mass., youth, then only 18 years old, led the Crimson cubs to victories over the Yale freshmen in football, baseball and hockey, hardly a week has passed in which Wood hasn't done something extraordinary enough to call for a piece in the papers.

When he rose to varsity competition, there was no doubt that he would equal the nine-letter record of such Harvard greats as George Owen and Jack Hammond, but there is even the possibility that he may surpass the record by winning a letter in tennis competition. The National Lawn Tennis association has named him as the second best player of any record in New England and last fall he was named as a member of the Davis cup squad but was unable to accept.

During his sophomore year at football, Wood tied the Army with a touchdown pass and astonished Michigan with his sharp-shooting pegs. Fielding Yost called him one of the greatest of forward passers. This year he quarterbacked a Harvard team that upset a fine Yale outfit.

The hockey team, on which he is a center, split a two-game series last season with a Yale team that was an overwhelming favorite and Barry was a big noise in Harvard's 3 to 2 victory. The baseball team, on which he was the shortest, also split a two-game series with a Yale team that was favorite to win.

Instinct, poise and perseverance—

Carnegie Passers Trim Mahoning

Carnegie basketball team added another victory to its list when Carnegie defeated the fast Mahoning Juniors in a game played on Wednesday at Carnegie gym. The final score was 23-10.

Gallagher and Campbell were the best bets for the winners while Ezzo and DiThomas looked the best for the losers.

Tonight the Carnegie team plays the Sky Rockets.
The summary follows:
Carnegie 23 Mahoning Jrs. 10
Gallagher ..... 10
Campbell ..... 10

Polish Falcons Seeking Games

The Polish Falcon basketball team is desirous of playing the best basketball teams in the city of New Castle, and Lawrence county. Word to this effect was received today from Joseph Frankovich.

"Any of the Church league teams will be given a game by the Falcons," said Frankovich. Games will be scheduled away and at home. All managers wanting first class games on their schedules can get the Polish Falcons by calling 3011 before 7 o'clock, or by calling 9294 after 7 o'clock, or write to Joseph Frankovich, 104 Charles street, New Castle, Pa. In calling either of the numbers ask for Frankovich.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Nate Lewis, Chicago stadium, has offered $500,000 to Joe Jacobs, manager of Max Schmeling for the German to fight Young Stribling in a heavyweight title fight at Chicago next summer. Lewis would stake the bout at Soldier's field, which seats more than 100,000.

Frank Taberski clinched a place among the first four in the world championship pocket billiard tournament yesterday at New York when he defeated Pasquale Natale of Chicago, 125 to 120 in a 39 inning match.

Within a few days the local batlers will hie to gymnasiums in the hope of appearing in some of the bouts to be staged at Castle bowl in January. The local boys will be paired off in some of the bouts and letters have already gone out to some of the ring celebrities to appear in the feature role.

Vitus Conti at 3299-J is ready to listen over the telephone to any of the boys who want to greet Frank Carideo, Notre Dame quarterback who will be given a testimonial dinner at The Castleton, January 3, Umpire McGraw of Youngstown called yesterday for 25 pastboards. He's a great Carideo booster.

Judge J. M. Landis who underwent a minor operation in Chicago, is reported resting comfortably and the attending surgeon reported that his famous patient is doing well.

Princeton Teams Are Victorious

Princeton Girls and Boys Team Defeat Union Junior High School Teams

Princeton high school boys and girls team were victorious in games played at Princeton on Friday night. The girls defeated Union Junior high girls team 35-7 and the Princeton boys turned the trick on the Union Junior high quintet 17-6.

Both games proved interesting despite the lopsided scores. The Princeton girls looked impressive in the game. Miss Mettie Round girls coach was pleased with the showing her team made. In the girls game the playing of Armstrong and Shelar featured for the winners while Carey and Bailey were the best for Union. In the boys game Myers and McGuire came through with three goals for Princeton while Patton and Loislize were the only scorers for Union.

Lutheran Body Elects Officers For Coming Year

Extensive And Success Christmas Meeting Of Women
Missionary Body Here
Wednesday

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 18.—The annual Christmas party of the Women's Missionary Society of the Trinity Lutheran church took place Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Arthur Dambach of Hazel avenue.

Devotional leaders were Mrs. Geo. Garmon and Mrs. Gregg and the subject of discussion was "Our Work Among the Italians." At the business meeting 38 responded to the roll call and the members voted favorably upon the suggestion that the society play Santa Claus to the largest family, for which funds are being solicited by a local paper. Gifts were brought to be sent to the Girls Training School in Kottack, Va., and were packed and sent today.

The newly elected officers for the coming year are: President: Mrs. George Garmon; vice president Mrs. H. F. Fleisher; secretary, Mrs. C. D. Ross; treasurer, Mrs. John Strohecker; statistician, Miss Elizabeth Zikali and literary secretary, Mrs. Arthur Dambach. Organist, Mrs. Gladys Blank.

The social portion of the meeting was most successfully put on by the Misses Ellen and Marcia Whittaker, who had written an original play just for the meeting last night. The main characters were Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus and before the final curtain, so to speak, the entire membership was involved in the plot and humorous gifts were distributed. Another feature of the meeting was that each member brought her lunch in a box, and received a number. Later the boxes were mixed up and delivered and the uncertainty as to whether one was drawing chicken or bologna, proved very thrilling, and a fitting close to one of the most successful Christmas parties ever given by the society.

Missionary Body Talks Stewardship

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 18.—Members of the Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church enjoyed their monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon with a one o'clock tureen luncheon in the church dining room.

Mrs. W. R. Johnston had charge of Devotionals and the meeting was then turned over to the Stewardship secretary, Mrs. W. H. Goehring who presented a pleasant program on "Stewardship" Mrs. H. W. Brown read an interesting paper on "Stewardship for Children" and Mrs. John Breneman told a Christmas story. Mrs. Adele Eggers-Furnish handled the musical portion most capably, contributing a group of Christmas songs.

The members brought gifts for children of poor families which will be wrapped and distributed through Mrs. Breneman and her committee. Routine business was conducted after which the meeting concluded until next month.

BURLEIGH GRIMES TRIES STAGE

Helped by Miss Gabrielle Tremblay, Burleigh Grimes, St. Louis Cardinals' pitcher, "makes up" for his appearance on the vaudeville stage in Brooklyn. Grimes pitched in the last world series.

Christmas Party Enjoyed Wednesday By Legion Here

Legion Auxiliary And Comrades
Enjoy Music And Dancing
At Annual Christmas Party

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 18.—Over 100 members of the American Legion and its auxiliary met Wednesday evening in the Legion hall on Sixth street for the annual Christmas party.

Decorations were carried out in seasonal colors and a fine program of bingo, round and square dancing and radio music was carried out to the pleasure of all present. A feature of the meeting was a tap-dancing act by Betty Nickum and Thelma Wilson, which contributed greatly to the general success of the evening. Mrs. Slighter, who was general chairman of the affair, is to be congratulated on its undeniable success.

Assisting the chairman were Mesdames Fred Swanson, Ted Knuaff, B. M. Lawther, O. A. Barkley, Maud Campbell, H. M. Lee, Elmer Greenham and Wayne Baird. The meeting closed with the serving of delicious refreshments.

OPERETTA FRIDAY

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 18.—The pupils of the North Side school numbering about 55 will repeat their Christmas operetta Friday night in the school. It is entitled "Patchwork Fairies" and has been carefully worked out as to costumes and music. Parents and friends are invited to attend tonight's and tomorrow night's performances.

Manhattans Lose To Fintex Quintet In League Battle

Ellwood City Cagers Nosed Out
24 To 21, By Pittsburgh
Basketeurs

(By TONY PASTA)

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Dec. 18.—An exciting and close contest took place last night on the Shelby floor when the Ellwood City Manhattan basketballers dropped a 24 to 21 battle to the Fintex quintet of Pittsburgh.

From the very opening minute of the battle it could be seen that it was going to be a hard tussle and at the half the visitors led by an 18 to 17 count.

Close guarding and hard playing in the last half of the hectic contest kept both teams from scoring very heavily. The Smoky City lads annexed only five points while the locals collected four.

Although the Manhattans lost, the local fans were very much pleased with the tilt as it was interesting and close with both quintets putting up a brilliant performance. Miller was the outstanding performer for the winners as he caged five field goals with Ketchell and Angelo both getting air of baskets.

Friedman was the best scorer for the local club as he sank three markers. Lippe was not present to take part in the fray and was replaced by Blair, who played in a flashy manner to get two goals. Delahanty was also absent from the lineup. In spite of two regulars being played a strong game and forced the Pittsburghers to the limit to nose out a victory.

The lineup:
Ellwood.....Fintex
Friedman.....F.....Klinging
Blair.....F.....Angelo
Lloyd.....C.....Ketchell
Fitzgerald.....G.....Miller
Lewis.....G.....Leisenring
Subs—Serbin, Paris, Little.

Field goals—Miller 5, Ketchell 2, Angelo 2, Friedman 3, Blair 2. Fouls—Fintex 4 out of 8, Ellwood 7 out of 12.

Referee—John Irwin.

Officers Elected At Club Here

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 18.—The annual election of officers took place Wednesday afternoon when the Polyanna club met with Mrs. Ira West of First street. The officers are: President, Mrs. Reuben Reed; Vice President, Mrs. Ira West; Treasurer, Mrs. John Strohecker and Secretary, Mrs. Charles Cunningham.

The members enjoyed an exchange of Christmas gifts. A social period was enjoyed and the hostess served the lunch at one large table with covers laid for 15. A tree decorated the center and under it gifts were grouped.

The next meeting takes place January 21.

Mrs. Clyde Beman Entertains Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 18.—Mrs. Clyde Beman of the Ellwood-New Castle road entertained the members of the S. O. B. Club Wednesday evening at her home. The affair was the annual Christmas party and the members exchanged pretty gifts. A special guest was Mrs. Sam Brady.

Later a series of 500 games were enjoyed, honors going to Mrs. N. Yoho and Mrs. Harry Tesse. Mrs. Brady received a guest gift.

Later the hostess served a seasonal lunch, assisted by Mrs. Albert Wilson. In two weeks a New Years party with the husbands as guests.

Special Meeting Of Kings Daughters

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 18.—A Christmas party will be enjoyed by members of the Kings' Daughter Bible class of the United Presbyterian church Friday evening. It will be in the form of a tureen dinner at 6:30 and husbands of the members will be special guests. There will be an exchange of gifts and a program. There will also be the annual election of officers at this meeting.

Plans are being made for a pleasant evening, and it is being anticipated as one of the nicest Christmas parties of the season.

Elks Will Give Venison To Poor

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 18.—Two doe which were underweight have been turned over to the local Elks club by permission of the game warden and sections will be placed in the baskets for Christmas distribution to the poor this year.

A local butcher who is also a member of the lodge will cut up the doe and see that every basket gets a good piece.

Y. P. COUNCIL MEETING
ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 18.—Members of the Young People's Council of the Slippery Rock church are scheduled to meet Friday night in the church for their monthly meeting. There will be a business meeting and social period.

Patients In Local Hospital To Hang Up Sox

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 18.—Santa Claus will not neglect the sick in the local hospital this year. Plans are afoot to have the patients hang up their stockings at the foot of their respective beds. In the stillness of the night, it is expected that hospital officials will fill the receptacles with small gifts, which have been pouring into the hospital for the past two weeks for this very purpose. This will prove a bright spot in the lives of many poor souls who have been confined to their beds for many a weary day, and are sick and tired of looking at the same old white walls day in and day out.

Class Six At Kingston Home

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 18.—Miss Dorothy Kingston entertained members of class No. 6 of the Bell Memorial church at a Christmas party Wednesday night at her home on Todd avenue. Special guests were members of class five. Games and music formed the evening's diversions.

Later delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by a committee composed of Thelma Vogler, Arlene Anderson, Grace Morrow, Mildred Innis, Dorothy Battersby and Pearl Symbola.

Dames Of Malta To Have Party

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 18.—The Dames of Malta will enjoy their annual Christmas party Friday evening in the Pythian hall.

A special program is being planned and there will be an exchange of gifts. Following the program they will enjoy a social period and lunch.

PYTHIAN SISTERS

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 18.—Aime Temple of Pythian Sisters will meet this evening in the K. of P. club house at 8 o'clock for their annual Christmas party. At the close of the meeting an exchange of gifts will be effected. Mrs. Kinglinsmith and her committee will have charge of the entertainment and luncheon.

PAGEANT REHEARSAL

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 18.—A rehearsal of the Christmas pageant "They That Sit in Darkness," which is being presented Sunday evening, December 28, at the First Baptist church, will take place this evening at 8 o'clock in the church. The entire cast is asked to be present.

A. W. CLASS

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 18.—Members of the A. W. Class of the U. P. church will enjoy their annual Christmas party Friday night at the home of Mrs. Russell Bates of Park avenue. There will be the customary exchange of gifts.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Italian Consul To Attend Celebration Banquet On Sunday

Supreme Lodge Master To Be Present At Sons Of Italy
Fete In The Castleion

Last arrangements are being completed for the eighth birthday anniversary celebration of Trionfo Italiano, Lodge No. 171, Sons of Italy of New Castle, to be held in the Castleion Sunday evening.

Distinguished speakers and lodge dignitaries will attend the banquet for which plans have been started several weeks ago. The honor guests will be Giovanni DeSilvestro, Master of the Supreme Lodge; Judge Eugenio V. Alessandrini of Philadelphia, Master of the Grand Lodge; Italian Vice Consul G. Gurato, of Pittsburgh; Cav. Cozzo, Cav. Sunzneri and Cav. Certo also of Pittsburgh.

The initiation of 100 new members will take place with a ceremony in King Humbert Hall, East Division street, Sunday at 1:30 p. m. Francis DeSanctis, secretary of the committee of arrangements and chairman of the banquet, will be the toastmaster of the banquet to start at 6:30 p. m. William Del Rosso is the chairman of the general committee. Antonio Costa is the president of Trionfo Italiano.

One hundred and fifty are expected to attend the banquet Sunday evening. Visitors will include members of Sons of Italy lodges in Ellwood City, Sharon, Grove City, Donora and Butler.

Others members of the committee of arrangements for the affair are: Mrs. Maria Berardi, Alfonso Scarazzo, Mr. and Mrs. Luigi Lateano, Francesco Mancini, Domenico Fratruza, Mrs. Angelina Lombardi, Mrs. DeCervo, Mr. and Mrs. Pasquale Volpe, Mrs. Rosa Costa, Mrs. Mary E. Conti, Vito Colella, Mrs. Clotilde Rossi, Mrs. Elisa Casacchia, Mrs. Antonietta Armando, Sam Di Carlo, Bosco Luigi, Mrs. Teresa Babinia, Constabile Acquaviva, Angelo Masta Mastranuono.

Big Improvements At East New Castle

Modernistic today, but built with an eye for the future, when expansion work would not be handicapped by limited space, the new bulk station, warehouse, garage and office of the Standard Oil Company of Pennsylvania at East New Castle has reached completion. The cost of the group of buildings, oil tanks and intricate underground piping is conservatively estimated at $75,000 although local representatives of the oil company figure the actual cost of the distribution plant may be considerably more.

With the erection of the new unit in the district, between the tracks of the Western Allegheny railroad and the Harmony line, where bulk stations of other oil companies are rapidly making East New Castle a conspicuous oil center in this part of the state, other companies whose distribution stations are erected there announced expansion plans that will mean a considerable outlay of money.

Shell Lets Contract.

The Rocelle Refining company, district distributor for the Shell interests, has let a $13,000 contract for the erection of a super service station with a Rochester, Pa., construction company. Jack Wilson of West Virginia, manager of the Shell bulk station situated east of Standard's new plant in East New Castle said that the Rocelle company has let the contract with the Rochester Title company.

Work on the station to be located on the Ellwood road a short distance from the tanks, will be started on Monday, Wilson said. Eight New Castle contractors are reported to have made bids for the building.

Tide Water Has Plans.

R. L. Amant, sales agent of Tide Water Oil Sales corporation, whose bulk station is situated east of the Shell plant, said today that his company plans an extensive building program in the spring.

Seven months ago Tide Water had completed plans for additions in the local district to cost approximately $75,000. A large warehouse storage room and office building are on the building program of this oil company.

At the present the three bulk plants are entrenched in an area suitable for expansion. Oil tanks and low buildings are rapidly making East New Castle, the region on East Washington street extension, the bulk distribution center in Lawrence county. There is a persistent rumor in the bulk station district that the American Oil company is dickering for a location of a distribution station to serve its outlets in the county. At the present time this concern is shipping gasoline here from Bridgewater, its main plant in this region.

Standard Plant Modern.

During the last few days the Standard Oil Company of Pennsylvania agent, W. O. Kerr, and Orvel D. Williams, sales manager, have shifted their office from 212 Grove street to the office in the bulk station, which other oil men in New Castle declare is the finest in northwestern Pennsylvania and the most modern in the state.

The plant will take care of distribution in Lawrence county. It has a capacity of 86,000 gallons. Work was started in the summer. The completed project consists of six tanks, four of them horizontal, each with a capacity of 12,000 gallons and two vertical, each with a capacity of 19,000 gallons.

The metal warehouse has loading platforms for freight cars and trucks. Pipe lines extend to the railroad tracks for quick connection with tank cars. A brick and cement garage in which the office is located and oil distribution racks, and other innovations of the latest design are characteristic of the new bulk station.

Constable's Trial Is Moving Slowly

Judge Graff Orders Night Sessions Remainder Of Week,
In Raper Case

KITTANNING, Dec. 18.—Because the proceedings of the trial of William Raper, charged with the murder of Joseph Conto, soft-drinks manufacturer of Leechburg, were moving along too slowly Judge Graff today indicated that further night sessions of court will be continued throughout the week.

Before a filled court-house, testimony has been heard so far chiefly concerning the disappearance of Conto and the finding of his headless body September 25.

Commonwealth witnesses yesterday traced the passage of the car in which Raper and Conto were alleged to have been riding out on the road toward Apollo. Pearl Garavizza, state "surprise" witness, testified she had seen Raper drive off with Conto who told her he would be back in an hour.

Raper, former constable, is the least worried man in the court room and keeps up a steady line of chatter with his wife.

Well Known Jockey Called By Death

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Clarence Kummer, 31, one of the best known riders on the turf, died at his home, Jamaica, Queens, today.

He had been ill with pneumonia for a week.

If Congress can keep up the quarrel, it may be spared any more legislation after all.—The St. Louis Times.

NEW YORK STOCKS

Better Buying Demand
For Stocks Seen Today

(International News Service.) NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Further advances of 1 to 3 points were recorded in the leading Industrial and Utility stocks in the first hour today, as buying orders, attracted by yesterday's sensational rise, accumulated in Wall Street. It was the general impression that the "Turn" had come, and that favorable developments in business over the year-end would stimulate increasing demand for good stocks from investors all over the country. Meanwhile the bears' reign of terror was believed to have definitely ended.

The shorts in Auburn Auto were given another uncomfortable jolt by the further run-up of that stock to 108½. This is 21 points above yesterday's low. And shows the effect of an over-crowding of the short side of a closely-held stock. United States steel forged ahead to 141½ for a new gain of 2 points and a rally of 8 points since Wednesday noon. New advances of 1 to 2½ points were scored for Consolidated Gas, New York Central, North American and other favorites.

The rally was blocked in the second hour by profit taking and tax selling, the market hesitating and slowing up rather than showing signs of definite weakness. The Coppers were under pressure and most of the independent Steel stocks sold off from the best prices of the first hour.

Better conditions were also seen in some of the important commodity markets. Grain and Cotton showing slight advances. Call money loaned at 2 per cent, with funds offered in the outside market at 1½ per cent.

JUDGE

The Decision
The court held with the creditor. The judges reasoned thus:
While a debt is discharged by a decree of a court in bankruptcy, it is revived so as to renew its legal obligation by later promises to pay made by the debtor subsequent to the date of its discharge.
